

Figures and Tables

Figures

- 1.1 Purpose of the five surveys / 30
- 1.2 Sampling frame and target population / 31
- 1.3 Screening questions – self-identification as disabled / 32
- 1.4 Proportion of sample in various states of self-reported health / 34
- 1.5 Prevalence of disability in each age group / 36
- 1.6 Proportion of population in each age group / 36
- 1.7 Definitions of disability / 39
- 2.1 The social and scientific formulations of disability / 49
- 2.2 Theoretical constructs of entitlement arising from the intersection of disability and equality / 57
- 2.3 Initiatives undertaken by the United Nations and human rights agencies concerning persons with disabilities / 59

Tables

- 1.1 Proportion of sample classified as disabled / 31
- 1.2 Comparison of impairments and activity restrictions (%) / 33
- 1.3 Comparison of gender (%) / 35
- 1.4 Comparison of educational attainment, employment, and household income (%) / 37
- 6.1 Occupations most commonly occupied by clients, by disability (%) / 135
- 6.2 Mean hours and salaries by gender and disability / 136
- 6.3 Percentage of jobs full-time by gender and disability / 137