

PEOPLE, POLITICS, AND PURPOSE

C.D. HOWE SERIES IN CANADIAN POLITICAL HISTORY

Series editors: Robert Bothwell and John English

This series offers fresh perspectives on Canadian political history and public policy from over the past century. Its purpose is to encourage scholars to write and publish on all aspects of the nation's political history, including the origins, administration, and significance of economic policies; the social foundations of politics and political parties; transnational influences on Canadian public life; and the biographies of key public figures. In doing so, the series fills large gaps in our knowledge about recent Canadian history and makes accessible to a broader audience the background necessary to understand contemporary public-political issues. Other volumes in the series are:

Grit: The Life and Politics of Paul Martin Sr., by Greg Donaghy

The Call of the World: A Political Memoir, by Bill Graham

Prime Ministerial Power in Canada: Its Origins under Macdonald, Laurier, and Borden, by Patrice Dutil

The Good Fight: Marcel Cadieux and Canadian Diplomacy, by Brendan Kelly

Challenge the Strong Wind: Canada and East Timor, 1975–99, by David Webster

The Nuclear North: Histories of Canada in the Atomic Age, edited by Susan Colbourn and Timothy Andrews Sayle

The Unexpected Louis St-Laurent: Politics and Policies for a Modern Canada, edited by Patrice Dutil

Canadian Foreign Policy: Reflections on a Field in Transition, edited by Brian Bow and Andrea Lane

The Rowell-Sirois Commission and the Remaking of Canadian Federalism, by Robert Wardhaugh and Barry Ferguson

A Long Way to Paradise: A New History of British Columbia Politics, by Robert A.J. McDonald

A Cooperative Disagreement: Canada-United States Relations and Revolutionary Cuba, 1959–93, by John M. Dirks

The series originated with a grant from the C.D. Howe Memorial Foundation and is further supported by the Bill Graham Centre for Contemporary International History.
