

Suing for Silence

Law and Society Series

W. Wesley Pue, Founding Editor

We pay tribute to the late Wes Pue, under whose broad vision, extraordinary leadership, and unwavering commitment to sociolegal studies our Law and Society Series was established and rose to prominence.

The Law and Society Series explores law as a socially embedded phenomenon. It is premised on the understanding that the conventional division of law from society creates false dichotomies in thinking, scholarship, educational practice, and social life. Books in the series treat law and society as mutually constitutive and seek to bridge scholarship emerging from interdisciplinary engagement of law with disciplines such as politics, social theory, history, political economy, and gender studies.

Recent books in the series:

Emilie Biland, translated by Annelies Fryberger and Miranda Richmond Mouillot, Family Law in Action: Divorce and Inequality in Quebec and France (2023)

Kate Puddister and Emmett Macfarlane, eds., Constitutional Crossroads: Reflections on Charter Rights, Reconciliation, and Change (2022)
