

LIST OF MAPS

- MAP 1. Voyages of Ludovico Varthema (1505) and António de Abreu (1511–1512), Malacca to eastern Indonesia and return.
- MAP 2. India.
- MAP 3. Indianized South East Asia.
- MAP 4. Expansion of Hinduism and Buddhism and distribution of Nestorian sites.
- MAP 5. Muslim World, A.D. 661–ca. 1500.
- MAP 6. Arabs and South East Asia.
- MAP 7. Medieval Europe and the Levant.
- MAP 8. Medieval Europe and the Near East.
- MAP 9. China and South East Asia.
- MAP 10. Peninsular and Insular South East Asia.
- MAP 11. Cloves, nutmeg, and sandalwood as “natural products” in Chinese sources before ca. 1350, and tribute in cloves, nutmeg, and sandalwood (or sandalwood products) to the Chinese court.
- MAP 12. South East Asia: principal European centers of administration, entrepôts, and factories, 1511–ca. 1650.

