

MAPS

1. Pearl-fishing and trade in pearls before ca 1750
2. Reports of Pinctada spp.
3. Reports of Pinctada radiata or P. vulgaris, P. imbricata, and P. mazatlanica
4. Reports of Pinctada maxima
5. Reports of Pinctada capensis, P. martensi, P. albina, P. shimizuensis
6. Reports of Pinctada margaritifera, and report of P. galtsoffi
7. Reports of Pinctada onomioides
8. Reports of Pinctada nigra
9. Reports of Pinctada maculata
10. Reports of Pinctada chemnitzii
11. Egypt and the Red Sea: archaeological pearls and mother-of-pearl
12. The Ancient Near East, North West India, Asia Minor, and South East Europe
13. Pearls at archaeological sites in the Old World
14. The pearl-fishing coasts of southern India and Sri Lanka
15. Pearl-fishing locations before ca. 1750
16. Ancient China
17. Pearl-fishing and pearl emporia in Classical sources: India and the Persian Gulf
18. Hellenistic Asia, Egypt and Cyrenaica, ca. 323–30 BC
19. The Muslim world, 661–ca. 1500
20. Pearl-fishing, pearl markets, and trade in pearls in Arabo-Persian sources, ninth to fifteenth centuries
21. Names for pearl in India and the archipelagos of South East Asia
22. The expansion of Hinduism and Buddhism, and the distribution of Nestorian and Manichaean sites
23. Principal pearl-fishing coasts of South West China and Hai-nan
24. Sources of pearls, outside China and Central Asia, in Chinese accounts before ca. 1500
25. Principal land routes and sea connections between (a) Rome and Byzantium, and (b) Ch'ang-an and Lo-yang, ca. 100–200
26. Places in Greece, Western and West-Central Asia and North Africa manufacturing Chinese silk, ca. 600
27. Takla Makan, Sinkiang: avenues of penetration
28. Medieval Europe and Asia Minor
29. Principal pearl-fisheries and pearl entrepôts under the control of either Portugal or Spain by the middle of the sixteenth century
30. The Pacific: Melanesia and Polynesia

31. Spondylus spp: regional reports and specific locations in the New World
32. Spondylus spp. at archaeological sites in the New World
33. Pinctada spp. and Pteria spp: regional reports and specific locations in the New World
34. Pinctada spp., Pteria spp. and pearls at archaeological sites in the New World
35. Ethnic groups with names for pearl in Middle, Central, and South America
36. Middle America: archaeological sites and former areas of shellfish-dye extraction
37. Central America: Darien chiefdoms ca. 1500 and former areas of shellfish-dye extraction
38. Isla Cubagua, Isla de Margarita, and the Pearl Coast
39. The Caribbean
40. Western Mexico and southern Baja California: pearling islands and pearling ports