

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

I want to thank APS Librarian Martin Levitt for suggesting me as someone who could complete Volume Three. I also want to thank former APS Executive Officers Mary and Richard Dunn for agreeing with Marty's suggestion, and an extra thank-you to Richard for his editorial advice. Mary McDonald, head of APS Publications, was supportive and encouraging and patient. Celeste Bivings was the conscientious proofreader of the final versions of the sketches.

Volume Three would have been much more difficult to complete without the contributions of Earle Spamer, Richard Shrake, Valerie-Anne Lutz Van Ammers, Joseph-James Ahern, John Van Horne, and Gail Rowe, who among them wrote nine sketches.

Special thanks go to Valerie for organizing Whit's permission file and securing as many images as she could.

And thanks to Whitfield Jenks Bell, Jr., for his confidence, example, and support.
