

CONTENTS OF ALEXANDER VON HUMBOLDT: WRITINGS IN ENGLISH, PART II: 1825–1859

Interesting correspondence between baron Humboldt and the mexican government (1825)

Population of America (1825)

M. de Humboldt, and the Volcanos of Mexico (1825)

Administration of Justice in Spanish America (1826)

Observations on the Mean Temperature of the Equatorial Regions
(1826)

Account of the Discovery of a Mine of Platinum in Columbia, and of Mines of Gold and of Platinum in the Uralian Mountains (1826)

Germination of Seeds (1826)

On the Volcanos of Guatemala (1826)

Vegetable Glue (1826)

Voyage aux Régions Equinoxiales du Nouveau Continent, fait en
1799–1804, par Al. de Humboldt et A. Bonpland. Rédigé par
Alexandre de Humboldt, avec deux Atlas, &c. Tom. 3. in 4to.
Paris, 1825. Travels in the Equinoctial Regions of the New Continent in 1799 to 1804, by Humboldt and Bonpland, &c.
(1826)

[Letter to the Secretary of the United Mexican Mining Association] (1826)

Report of the Researches in various Branches of Natural History made by Messrs Ehrenberg and Hemprich, on their Travels through Egypt, Dongola, Syria, Arabia, and the Eastern Slope of the Abyssinian Highlands in the Years 1820–1825. Read before the Royal Academy of Sciences, by Alexander Von Humboldt.

Berlin; printed at the press of the Royal Academy of Sciences,
1826 (1827)

Bridges of Suspension (1827)

On the Principal Causes of the Differences of Temperature on the Globe (1827)

Alexander Humboldt on Negro Slavery (1827)

On Coral Islands (1828)

On the Fecundation of Flowers (1828)

On the Luminousness of the Ocean (1828)

The supposed recent Origin of America refuted (1828)

Account of the great Congress of Philosophers at Berlin on the 18th September 1828. Communicated by a Correspondent (1828)

General view of the Scientific researches recently carried on in the Russian Empire. In a discourse pronounced at the Extraordinary sitting of the Imperial Academy of Sciences of St
Petersburg, held on the 28th November 1829 (1829)

Excessive length of words (1829)

Brief Narrative of De Humboldt's Travels in Russia (1829)

On the Lofty Flight of the Condor (1829)

On the Systems of Numerical Signs used by different Nations, and on the Origin of the Expression of Value by Position in the Indian Numbers (1829)

Notes from a Notice (of some time past) of the Journey of M. de Humboldt in Siberia, and Researches of Mr. Ehrenberg on the Organisation, and the Geographical Distribution of the Infusoria and Northern Asia (1830)

On the chains of mountains and volcanos of Central Asia (1830)

On the Produce of Gold and Silver in the Russian Empire (1830)

Académie des Sciences (Paris) (1831)

[African Slavery] (1831)

Letter to the President of the Academy of Sciences (1832)

Pulque (1833)

Lieut. Burnes and Humboldt (1835)

Traces of Mammalia in the New Red Sandstone (grès bigarré) of Hildburghausen in Germany, communicated to the Academy of Sciences of France (1835)

Baron de Humboldt (1835)

Letter from Baron von Humboldt to His Royal Highness the Duke of Sussex, K. G., President of the Royal Society of London, on the Advancement of the Knowledge of Terrestrial Magnetism, by the Establishment of Magnetic Stations and corresponding Observations (1836)

Extract of a letter from Baron de Humboldt (1837)

On Two Attempts to ascend Chimborazo (1837)

On the difference of level between the Black Sea and the Caspian (1838)

An essay on the fluctuations in the supplies of gold, with relation to problems of political economy (1838)

Comparison of savage and civilized life (1839)

On the Longitude of Valparaiso and Callao, in a Letter from Baron Alexander von Humboldt (1839)

[Letter to J. L. Moillet] (1839)

Letter from Baron Alexander von Humboldt to the Earl of Minto / Additions fragmentaires aux “Instructions for the Scientific Expedition to the Antarctic Regions” (1840)

Alexander Von Humboldt, and Africa (1841)

Musical Rocks of South America (1841)

Colonial Society (1842)

An Attempt to determine the mean height of Continents (1842)

Von Humboldt (1843)

The Isthmus of Panama (1843)

Great Mass of Native Gold (1843)

Note by M. Humboldt (1843)

On the Comparative Level of Lakes and Seas, as the Caspian, Lake Aral, Black Sea, Red Sea, Mediterranean, Lake Tiberias, Dead Sea, Atlantic, Pacific, &c. (1843)

Singular Ceremony of Native Mexicans (1844)

Man—races—language (1845)

Carbonic Acid and Sulphureous Acid Springs—Cold Springs—Hot Springs—Mud Volcanoes—Volcanoes (1845)

Cosmos: Sketch of a Physical Description of the Universe (1845)

General view of the solar system (1845)

Fossil Meteoric Stones (1845)

Internal Temperature of the Earth (1845)

Earthquakes (1845)

On the Aurora Borealis (1845)

On the Height of the Snow-Line in India (1845)

On the known Thickness of the Crust of the Earth (1845)

The Temperature of Rain-Drops (1845)

Aerolites, or meteoric stones (1845)

On the Physiognomy of the Surface of the Earth (1845)

A Lofty Conception (1846)

Egyptian Antiquities (1846)

Physical Description of the Universe (1846)
All the Universe in Motion (1846)
Interesting Correspondence with M. Alex. de Humboldt (1847)
On Climates Suitable for the Production of Wine (1847)
The Diffusion of Life (1847)
The sublime Character of Hebrew Poetry (1847)
Humboldt on Landscape Painting (1847)
A General Movement in the World (1848)
Bernardin de St. Pierre (1848)
Descriptive Scenery (1848)
Early Encyclopædias (1848)
Influence of Trade (1848)
Letter from the Baron Alexander von Humboldt (1848)
Mr. Prescott, the Historian (1848)
Hebraic Poetry (1848)
Scientific Researches of the Arabians (1848)
The Roman Empire (1848)
What made Humboldt a Traveller (1848)
[Letter to Joseph Dalton Hooker] (1848)
Altitude of Volcanoes (1849)
Baron Humboldt on the Junction of the Pacific and the Atlantic Oceans (1849)
Cactuses (1849)
Subterranean Golden Gardens (1849)

- Nocturnal life of animals in the primeval forest (1849)
- On the periodical appearance of shooting stars from the 13th to the 15th of November (1849)
- The Northern Desert of Africa (1849)
- Introduction (1849)
- Origin of San Juan De Ulua (1849)
- An Aged and Enormous Oak (1849)
- Baron Humboldt and the Peace Congress (1850)
- Condors (1850)
- Letter from Humboldt (1850)
- The King Vulture (1850)
- To the Committee of the Berlin Society for the Colonization of Central America (1850)
- Utility of Buffalo Tracks (1850)
- An Interview with Humboldt—His Letter to Mr. Heine (1851)
- Animaculæ in the Air (1851)
- Colonel Fremont (1851)
- Colours of the Stars (1851)
- Mists in Peru (1851)
- New Stars (1851)
- Translated copy of a Letter from Baron Alexander Humboldt to S. G. Morton, M. D. (1851)
- Velocity of Light (1851)
- Cosmos: A Sketch of a Physical Description of the Universe (1852)
- A Cheaper Light than Gas (1853)

A Sensitive Murderer (1853)

Baron von Humboldt (1853)

M. de Buch (1853)

Indian Sang Froid (1853)

Junction of the Atlantic and Pacific Oceans (1853)

Noon in the tropics (1853)

The Extinct American Race (1853)

The Isthmus of Darien Ship Canal (1853)

The Parrot of Atures (1853)

The spanish laws of mining (1853)

The study of nature (1853)

Opinion of Humboldt (1853)

Fragment of a letter of Baron Alexander Humboldt to Mr. Albert Berg (1854)

To the editor of the “Bonplandia” (1854)

Introduction (1854)

Baron Humboldt and American Affairs (1855)

Letter from Baron Humboldt (1855)

On certain Appearances connected with the Zodiacal Light (1855)

Baron Humboldt on the Renewed Arctic Search (1856)

[A Letter from Alexander von Humboldt] (1856)

[A Letter from Alexander von Humboldt] (1856)

Humboldt and Agassiz (1856)

Humboldt and the Americans (1856)

Madame Ida Pfeiffer (1856)

Progress of Science (1856)

Size of Cuba (1856)

The Darien Canal (1856)

To Dr. B. A. Gould (1856)

Alexander Von Humboldt (1856)

[Letter to Lorin Blodget] (1856)

[Letter to Berthold Seemann] (1856)

Preface by Alexander von Humboldt (1857)

An Original Letter from Humboldt—Handsome Compliment to an American Officer (1857)

[Endorsement for John Buchanan Floyd] (1857)

[Humboldt on Manufacturing Porcelain] (1857)

[Aimé Bonpland] (1858)

Forster and Humboldt—Another letter from the author of Cosmos
(1858)

American Institute Farmers' Club (1858)

Baron Humboldt on American Slavery. A Private Letter to Mr.
Julius Froebel. Communicated to The Tribune with Humboldt's consent (1858)

Aimé Bonpland (1858)

“Symmes' Hole” (1858)

Extract from a letter of His Excellency Baron Alexander v.
Humboldt, Member of the King's Privy Council, and Chamberlain to His Majesty, at Berlin (1858)

[Letter to Chajim Selig Slonimski] (1858)

[Letter to Carl Vogel] (1858)

[Letter to George Ticknor] (1858)

[Letter on the Occasion of the 300th Anniversary of the University of Jena] (1858)

Compliment from Humboldt to Lieut. Maury (1859)

[Twenty-Five Hundred A Year] (1859)

Baron Humboldt and his Correspondents (1859)

