

Contents

Acknowledgments . . . . .	vii
Introduction . . . . .	ix
Chapter 1: 1743–1846: Early History of the APS Collections and Their Care . . . . .	1
Binding as Collections Care . . . . .	4
Other Early Preservation Efforts . . . . .	8
Chapter 2: Restoration and Conservation from the Twentieth Century to the Present. . . . .	11
Preservation and the APS Library Building . . . . .	13
Commercial Binding, Repair, and Rebinding . . . . .	18
1900–1920: William Berwick (1848–1920), Paper Restorer . . . . .	19
1935–1939: Carol Rugh (later Carolyn Horton), Book and Paper Conservator . . . . .	25
1942–1949: Helen A. Price, Book Conservator. . . . .	31
1948–1985: Willman Spawn, Book Conservator and Binding Historian. . . . .	32
1960s–1970s: Fritz and Trudi Eberhardt, Bookbinders and Restorers. . . . .	36
1986–2003: Hedi Kyle, Book Artist and Conservator . . . . .	39
Conservation at the APS Library & Museum Today. . . . .	41
Chapter 3: Generations of Re-Treatment at the APS Library & Museum . . . . .	43
David Rittenhouse, Diaries, 1784–1785 and 1792–1805, Mss.B.R51d . . . . .	44
Vocabulary of the Delaware Indians, Mss.497.V85 no.17 . . . . .	49
Charles Willson Peale, Diary Vol. 1, 1765–1767, Mss.B.P31 . . . . .	62
James Thackara and John Vallance, Plan of the City of Washington, 1792 , Printed.Maps . . . . .	68
Minutes of the Indian Treaty Council Held at Easton, 1757, Mss.970.5.M659.1 . . . . .	72
Benjamin Franklin, Ledger A and B, 1730–1740, Mss.B.F85f6.5. . . . .	79
Chapter 4: Considerations for the Re-Treatment of Library Materials . . . . .	87
Index. . . . .	93

