

CONTENTS

Preface	vii
Introduction	1
CHAPTER ONE. The text of The Mystic Ark as a reportatio 9
1. First suggestions of the text of The Mystic Ark as a reportatio	10
2. The occasional lack of understanding of the reporter of both the concept and the painting of The Mystic Ark	12
3. Patterns of presentation within the text	21
4. "Technical terms"	29
CHAPTER TWO. The supposition of a continuing change in The Mystic Ark 33
1. The supposition of a continuing change from the original painting of The Mystic Ark to the reportatio of The Mystic Ark	34
2. The supposition of a continuing change from the first recension of The Mystic Ark to the second recension	44
3. The editing of the second recension	57
CHAPTER THREE. The nature and original function of the text of The Mystic Ark 63
1. The supposition that the text of The Mystic Ark was originally intended as an appendix to The Moral Ark	64
2. Whether The Mystic Ark was painted at Saint Victor, the question of ekphrasis, and whether The Mystic Ark was meant to be painted by others	71
3. How the text of The Mystic Ark was meant to be understood as a set of instructions	78

CHAPTER FOUR. Conclusions 83

Notes 87

Bibliography 101

Index 109

Illustrations 2, 4, 5, 6, 7, 8, 13, 15, 16, 17, 20, 31, 32, 40, 41*Color Plates for Figures 1, 4, 5, 8, 9, 12, 13 and 14 appear in the front of the book*