

Contents

Preface & Acknowledgments	vii
Introduction: The Letters, Their Author, and Her Times	xi
THE EDUCATION OF SOPHIE DE GROUCHY	xix
THE ENLIGHTENMENT BACKGROUND	xxii
MADAME AND MONSIEUR CONDORCET IN THE REVOLUTION	xxv
THE DIRECTORY, THE IDÉOLOGUES, AND NAPOLEON	xxviii
CONTEMPORARY WIDOWS, WRITERS, AND FEMINISTS	xxxiv
Part I THE PHILOSOPHY OF SOPHIE DE GROUCHY	1
1. ON SYMPATHY	3
Smith and De Grouchy on the Origin of Sympathy	3
De Grouchy's Empiricism	5
The Role of Pain in de Grouchy and Smith	9

The Role of Sympathy in de Grouchy and Smith	11
2. REASON AND SENTIMENTS	19
The Debate Concerning Reason and Sentiments as Basis for Morality	19
Moral Emotions	22
Reason and Sentiments	28
3. SOCIAL AND POLITICAL PHILOSOPHY	35
Self-Interest, Selfishness, and Helping Others	35
Justice and Beneficence	47
Inequality, Poverty, and Redistribution	48
4. MORALITY AND HAPPINESS	59
Love and Happiness	59
Ethics and Psychology	62
5. SOPHIE DE GROUCHY AND FEMINIST ETHICS	67
Caring and the Origin of Morality	68
Criticism of Liberalism in Moral and Political Theory	70
Integrating Reason and Emotions	76
Experience and Impartiality	79
Effect on Political Theory: The Private- Public Dichotomy and Social Reform	88
Sympathy and Feminism	94
Part II LETTERS ON SYMPATHY (1798)	99
Translator's Preface	101
LETTER I	107
LETTER II	115
LETTER III	123
LETTER IV	133
LETTER V	147
LETTER VI	157
LETTER VII	167
LETTER VIII	175
Bibliography	185
Index	193