

CONTENTS

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction 1

I. THE AUSTRIAN SCHOOL AND ITS OPPONENTS— HISTORICISTS, SOCIALISTS, AND POSITIVISTS

1. Menger's Principles of Economics 17
2. The German Historical School 39
3. The Methodenstreit 64
4. Max Weber and the Decline of the Historical School 83
5. Positivism and Socialism 100

II. HAYEK'S JOURNEY

6. Hayek in Vienna 133
7. Monetary Theory and Methodology 150
8. Hayek at the London School of Economics 165
9. Some Methodological Debates of the 1930s 182
10. "Economics and Knowledge" and Hayek's Transformation 205
11. The Abuse of Reason Project 232
12. Individualism and the Sensory Order 261
13. Rules, Orders, and Evolution 288

III. HAYEK'S CHALLENGE

14. Journey's End—Hayek's Multiple Legacies 323
15. Epilogue: A Meditation on
Twentieth-Century Economics 370

Appendixes 407

Bibliography 439

Index 473

