Contents

	Acknowledgments	ix
I. Introdu	iction and Overview
	Introduction	3
	Victor R. Fuchs
1.	Overview	13
	Timothy Taylor
II. Human	SERVICES: ORGANIZATION, FINANCE, AND PRODUCTION
2.	Child Care: Private Cost or Public Responsibility? Arleen Leibowitz	33
	Comment: Francine D. Blau
3.	Rationalizing School Spending: Efficiency, Externalities, and Equity, and Their Connection to
	Rising Costs	59
	Eric A. Hanushek
	Comment: Christopher Jencks
4.	Health Care Reform: The Clash of Goals, Facts,
	and Ideology	107
	Henry J. Aaron
	Comment: Martin Feldstein

	~
viil	Contents

5.	To Comfort Always: The Prospects of Expanded Social Responsibility for Long-Term Care Alan M. Garber Comment: John B. Shoven	143
III. Human S	Services: Theoretical and Institutional Perspectives	S
6.	Consumption Externalities and the Financing of Social Services Robert H. Frank Comment: Amartya Sen	175
7.	Preferences, Promises, and the Politics of Entitlement Paul M. Romer Comment: Roger G. Noll	195
8.	Information, Responsibility, and Human Services Kenneth J. Arrow Comment: Glenn C. Loury	229
9.	The Changing Roles of Public, Private, and Nonprofit Enterprise in Education, Health Care, and Other Human Services Henry Hansmann Comment: Joseph A. Grundfest	245
10.	Government Intervention in the Markets for Education and Health Care: How and Why? James M. Poterba Comment: Richard J. Zeckhauser	277
11.	The Politics of American Social Policy, Past and Future Theda Skocpol Comment: Seymour Martin Lipset	309
	Contributors	341
	Author Index	343
	Subject Index	349