

---

Acknowledgments

---

This is the third volume presenting results of an ongoing project on social security and labor supply organized through the Program on the Economics of Aging at the National Bureau of Economic Research.

Funding for the project was provided by the National Institute on Aging grant numbers P01-AG05842 and P30-AG12810 to the National Bureau of Economic Research. Funding for individual papers is noted in specific chapter acknowledgments.

Any opinions expressed in this volume are those of the respective authors and do not necessarily reflect the views of the National Bureau of Economic Research or the sponsoring organization.

