

CONTENTS

INTRODUCTION 1

Local Media, Commercial Media 5

The World That Newspapers Made 7

ONE: A NEW NEWSPAPER MODEL 13

“More news, more advertisements, more paper, more print” 14

Readers Become Customers 21

Newspapers Remake Their Cities 35

The Objectivity Question 45

TWO: MAKING METROPOLITANS 54

Advising Women 58

Defining the Working, Middle, and Upper Classes 62

Teaching Technology 75

Toward a Mass Audience 80

Shaping Modern Men and Women 88

THREE: BUILDING PRINT COMMUNITY 102

A Concerned Public 106

Inside the City’s Many Spheres 113

Hardened Hearts and “Human Interest” 122

Middle-Class Cosmopolitans 129

An Urban Brand 137

FOUR: CONNECTING CITY, SUBURB, AND REGION 147

Building the Suburbs, Selling the Dream 150

Writing for Suburban Subscribers 164

Reading Suburban Newspapers 168

Newspapers Define the Region 174

FIVE: NATIONALIZING THE NEWS 194

Finding Milwaukee's Place 197

Shared and Syndicated News 204

Newspapers Nationalize 209

Chains and Big-Budget Features 218

Striking a Balance 224

EPILOGUE 234

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS 249

APPENDIX 253

NOTES 257

INDEX 321

Plates follow page 154.