

CONTENTS

Foreword by Alan M. Beck ix

Preface xiii

PART I About Dogs 1

- 1 What Is a Dog? 3
- 2 The World Is Full of Village Dogs 23
- 3 Why Do Village Dogs All Look Alike? 35
- 4 What Is a Niche? 43

PART II Behavioral Ecology 63

- 5 Behavioral Ecology of Dogs 65
- 6 The Cost of Building a Dog 71
- 7 The Cost of Feeding a Dog 79
- 8 The Cost of Reproduction 101
- 9 Avoiding Hazards and Their Costs 121

PART III	That Special Relationship between People and Dogs	127
10	The Symbiotic Relationship	129
11	Dogs Adopt People (and Other Animals)	155
12	People Adopt Dogs	167
13	People Breed Special Dogs	171
14	Breed Genes Stray into the Village Dog Population	187
15	Dog Genes Stray Back into the Wild	197
PART IV	Summary	203
16	Where — and Why — Are All These Dogs?	205
17	What Should We Do — If Anything — with All the Dogs?	219
	Acknowledgments	229
	Bibliography	233
	Index	247
	Plates follow page 78	