
Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
The Significance of the Founding Choices: Editors' Introduction	1
Douglas A. Irwin and Richard Sylla

I. POLITICS

1. The Constitutional Choices of 1787 and Their Consequences	25
Sonia Mittal, Jack N. Rakove, and Barry R. Weingast

II. POLICY

2. Financial Foundations: Public Credit, the National Bank, and Securities Markets	59
Richard Sylla
3. Revenue or Reciprocity? Founding Feuds over Early U.S. Trade Policy	89
Douglas A. Irwin
4. Monetary Policy and the Dollar	121
Peter L. Rousseau
5. Federal and State Commercial Banking Policy in the Federalist Era and Beyond	151
Howard Bodenhorn

6. The Other Foundings: Federalism and the Constitutional Structure of American Government	177
John Joseph Wallis

III. BUSINESS ORGANIZATION AND THE FACTORS OF PRODUCTION

7. Rise of the Corporation Nation	217
Robert E. Wright
8. U.S. Land Policy: Founding Choices and Outcomes, 1781–1802	259
Farley Grubb
9. Free Labor and Slave Labor	291
Stanley L. Engerman and Robert A. Margo
10. Looking Backward: Founding Choices in Innovation and Intellectual Property Protection	315
B. Zorina Khan
Contributors	343
Author Index	345
Subject Index	351