

CONTENTS

List of Illustrations xi

Acknowledgments xv

INTRODUCTION

Beyond Decline:

Assessing the Values of Urban Commercial Life in the Twentieth Century 1

CHAPTER 1

City Beautiful or Beautiful Mess?

The Gendered Origins of a Civic Ideal 13

CHAPTER 2

Fixing an Image of Commercial Dignity:

Postcards and the Business of Planning Main Street 42

CHAPTER 3

“Mrs. Consumer,” “Mrs. Brown America,” and “Mr. Chain Store Man”:
Economic Woman and the Laws of Retail 78

CHAPTER 4

Main Street’s Interior Frontier:

Innovation amid Depression and War 124

CHAPTER 5

“The Demolition of Our Outworn Past”:

Suburban Shoppers and the Logic of Urban Renewal 166

CHAPTER 6

The Hollow Prize?

Black Buyers, Racial Violence, and the Riot Renaissance 203

CHAPTER 7

Animated by Nostalgia:

Preservation and Vacancy since the 1960s 255

CONCLUSION

“The Lights Are Much Brighter There” 312

List of Archival Collections 319

Notes 321

Index 421

