
Contents

| | |
|--|---|
| Introduction: History and Theory in Search of One Another | 1 |
| Naomi R. Lamoreaux and Daniel M. G. Raff | |

I. WITHIN THE FIRM

| | |
|---|----|
| 1. The Puzzling Profusion of Compensation Systems in the Interwar Automobile Industry | 13 |
| Daniel M. G. Raff | |
| Comment: Walter Licht | |
| 2. Industrial Engineering and the Industrial Enterprise, 1890–1940 | 35 |
| Daniel Nelson | |
| Comment: Michael J. Piore | |
| 3. The Coordination of Business Organization and Technological Innovation within the Firm: A Case Study of the Thomson-Houston Electric Company in the 1880s | 55 |
| W. Bernard Carlson | |
| Comment: John Sutton | |

II. AT THE BOUNDARIES

| | |
|---|-----|
| 4. Organization and Coordination in Geographically Concentrated Industries | 103 |
| Michael J. Enright | |
| Comment: Kenneth L. Sokoloff | |

5. The Boundaries of the U.S. Firm in R&D 147
David C. Mowery
Comment: Joel Mokyr
6. Legal Restraints on Economic Coordination:
Antitrust in Great Britain and America,
1880–1920 183
Tony Freyer
Comment: Victor P. Goldberg

III. BETWEEN FIRMS

7. The Evolution of Interregional
Mortgage Lending Channels, 1870–1940: The Life
Insurance–Mortgage Company Connection 209
Kenneth A. Snowden
Comment: Timothy W. Guinnane
8. The Costs of Rejecting Universal Banking:
American Finance in the German Mirror,
1870–1914 257
Charles W. Calomiris
Comment: Peter Temin
- Contributors 323
- Name Index 325
- Subject Index 333