Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction Claudia Goldin and Lawrence F. Katz	1
I. Transitions over the Life Cycle
 Women Working Longer: Facts and Some Explanations Claudia Goldin and Lawrence F. Katz 	11
2. The Return to Work and Women's Employment Decisions Nicole Maestas	55
3. Understanding Why Black Women Are Not Working Longer Joanna N. Lahey	85
II. Family Matters: Caregiving, Marriage, and Divore	CE
4. Changes in Marriage and Divorce as Drivers of Employment and Retirement of Older Women Claudia Olivetti and Dana Rotz	113
5. Women Working Longer: Labor Marke Implications of Providing Family Care Sean Fahle and Kathleen McGarry	e t 157

III. Financial Cons Social Securit	SIDERATIONS: RESOURCES, PENSIONS, AND Y
6.	Older Women's Labor Market Attachment, Retirement Planning, and Household Debt Annamaria Lusardi and Olivia S. Mitchell	185
7.	Teaching, Teachers' Pensions, and Retirement across Recent Cohorts of College-Graduate Women Maria D. Fitzpatrick	217
8.	The Role of Social Security Benefits in the Initial Increase of Older Women's Employment: Evidence from the Social Security Notch Alexander Gelber, Adam Isen, and Jae Song	239
9.	The Hidden Resources of Women Working Longer: Evidence from Linked Survey-Administrative Data C. Adam Bee and Joshua Mitchell	269
	Appendix: The Health and Retirement Study (HRS)	297

299

301

305

Contributors

Author Index

Subject Index