

ISLAM AND WORLD HISTORY

JAMES A. MILLWARD, SERIES EDITOR

The Silk Roads series is made possible by the generous support of the Henry Luce Foundation's Asia Program. Founded in 1936, the Luce Foundation is a not-for-profit philanthropic organization devoted to promoting innovation in academic, policy, religious, and art communities. The Asia Program aims to foster cultural and intellectual exchange between the United States and the countries of East and Southeast Asia, and to create scholarly and public resources for improved understanding of Asia in the United States.

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO PRESS
CHICAGO AND LONDON

This book was published with the generous support of the University of Chicago Center in Paris. The center aims to develop intellectual and academic exchanges between France and the United States, offering classes in all disciplines; a research institute for graduate students, postdoctoral scholars, and professors from the University of Chicago whose work focuses on French culture and civilization; and debates, conferences, and colloquia aimed at facilitating and promoting academic collaboration between American and European researchers, as well as Paris-based alumni.
