

Contents

List of Illustrations • ix

Abbreviations • xiii

Preface • xv

Author's Note • xxiii

Introduction	1
Toward a Book History of the Scottish Enlightenment	1
Designs and Disclaimers	25

PART I. SCOTTISH AUTHORS IN A WORLD OF BOOKS

1. Composing the Scottish Enlightenment	43
Progress through Print	43
Building a Database of Scottish Enlightenment Authors and Books	73
2. Identity and Diversity among Scottish Authors	97
The Social Contexts of Authorship	97
Unity and Representation	131
3. The Rewards of Authorship	195
Patrons, Publishers, and Places	195
Copy Money and Its Uses	209

PART II. PUBLISHING THE SCOTTISH ENLIGHTENMENT IN LONDON AND EDINBURGH

4. Forging the London–Edinburgh Publishing Axis	265
The Framework of Collaborative Publishing	267
The Founding Publishers and Their Firms	275

5. The Heyday of Scottish Enlightenment Publishing	327
The House of Strahan and Cadell	327
Successors and Rivals	373

6. The Achievement of William Creech	401
The Career of a Bookseller	401
The Reputation of a Bookseller	428

PART III. REPRINTING THE SCOTTISH
ENLIGHTENMENT IN DUBLIN AND PHILADELPHIA

7. The Rise and Fall of Irish Reprinting	443
Publishers or Pirates?	445
In the Company of Dublin Booksellers	467

8. Making Scottish Books in America, 1770–1784	503
The Scottish Enlightenment and the American Book Trade	503
The Emergence of Scottish Enlightenment Reprinting in America	511

9. “A More Extensive Diffusion of Useful Knowledge”: Philadelphia, 1784–1800	541
Atlantic Crossings: Carey, Dobson, Young, and Campbell	541
Immigrant Booksellers and Scotch Learning	556

Conclusion	597
The Disintegration of the London–Edinburgh Publishing Axis	598
The Pattern of Scottish Enlightenment Book History	606

Appendix: Tables	611
------------------	-----

1. Scottish Enlightenment Authors, 1746–1800	613
---	-----

2. British, Irish, and American First Editions of Scottish Enlightenment Books, 1746–1800	620
--	-----

Index of Publishers in Table 2	690
--------------------------------	-----

3. Subjects and Formats of First British Editions of Scottish Enlightenment Books	700
--	-----

4. Popularity of British Editions of Scottish Enlightenment Books	701
--	-----

5. Principal Publishers of New Scottish Enlightenment Books	702
--	-----

6. Principal Publishers of Dublin First Editions of Scottish Enlightenment Books	704
---	-----

7. Printing Account of Thomas Cadell, Sr., in the Strahan Archive, 1793–1798	705
---	-----