

Tables

Table 1.1	Continental dollar redemption/maturity dates set by congressional legislation	16
Table 2.1	Colonial New Jersey emissions and redemptions of paper New Jersey pounds, 1755–83	26
Table 3.1	Denominational spacing	36
Table 3.2	Distribution of denominational sizes by number of units emitted	39
Table 6.1	Percentage distribution across the states of fiscal, monetary, and military quotas, 1775–83: Congressional resource and revenue demands	61
Table 6.2	Major theaters of war by region, 1775–81	65
Table 6.3	Percentage distribution of congressional monies spent, 1775–79, estimated by source and measured in Continental dollars (face value)	66
Table 6.4	Congressional troop costs in just soldier salaries: Expressed in Continental dollars (face value) per year, 1775–79	67
Table 6.5	Yearly distribution of congressional spending by type of expense, 1775–80	70
Table 8.1	Loan office certificates: Amounts, conditions, and dates authorized	88
Table 8.2	Loan office certificates issued for Continental dollars by state to March 3, 1783	92
Table 8.3	Loan office certificates still on hand and unlent by state as of November 10, 1780	99
Table 10.1	Legislated/forecast redemption dates and valuations for Continental dollar emissions	121

Table 16.1	Federal government revenue, 1789–1800	210
Table 16.2	Federal government debts, 1790 (face value in Spanish silver dollars)	211
Table 16.3	Expected annual interest costs of the 1790 Funding Act for the 1790s	216
Table 16.4	A full-funding plan for the federal debt in 1790	221
Table A.1	Continental dollars emitted by Congress, 1775–79: Corrected estimates of total net new emissions (face value)	246
Table A.2	Continental dollars emitted by Congress, 1775–81: Reconciliation of estimates of total net new emissions (face value)	249
Table B.1	Denominational structure of the Continental dollar in face value per emission, 1775–79	266
Table B.2	Face-value denominational structure of colonial paper monies during the Seven Years' War, 1755–64	269
Table B.3	Face-value denominational structure of state paper monies during the American Revolution, 1775–77	271
Table B.4	Denominational structure of loan office certificates per authorization	273
Table B.5	Denominational structure of loan office certificates as of November 10, 1780	275
Table C.1	Cumulative values of Continental dollars emitted and currently outstanding, 1775–80	278
Table D.1	Continental dollars paid by each state from 1779 through 1790 to the federal government as part of their tax revenues and currency swaps owed to Congress that were examined, counted, and then burned by the US Treasury (face value in nominal dollars)	285
Table D.2	1779 quotas and compliance fulfillment for remitting Continental dollars by state by year	290