

Preface ix

Notes to the Reader xi

INTRODUCTION

	Terra Incognita: Art in the Ruins	xii
1	Democratizing Japanese Art: Autonomy, Authority, and the Art World	38
2	Monument to Defeat in War : Out of the Ruins, a Bright Dawn	84
3	Cold War Alignments: Modernism and Populism in Creative Prints and People's Prints	128
4	Listen to the Voices of the Sea : Memory and Monumentality in War and Peace, and War	198

CONTENTS

---

5	Art and Women's Liberation: History Has Given Us Our First Chance	254
----------	--	-----

EPILOGUE

	The Limits of Peace and Freedom, and the Ends of Art under the Shadow of Empire	304
--	--	-----

Acknowledgments 319

Glossary of Major Artists and Art Organizations 323

Notes 331

Works Cited 409

Index 449

