

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

1. Thinking the Un-improvable, Thinking the Un-inheritable i
2. Aporias of Secularism 34
3. Postcolonial Community or Democratic Responsibility?
A Problem of Inheritance 84
4. Toward Mourning Political Sovereignty:
A Politics “Between a No-Longer and a Not-Yet”? 128
5. Im-passable Limits of Fugitive Politics:
Identity for and Against Itself 166
6. Active Forgetting of History, the “Im-possibility” of Justice 194
7. Politics of “Postsecular” Ethics, Futures of Anti-genealogy:
Community Without Community? 227

Notes 279

Index 311

