

CONTENTS

	PAGE
PREFACE	7
CHAPTER I
Postwar Difficulties for France; Victory for the Parlements	11
1. The sorry state of the French finances	12
2. Awakened interest in political economy	15
3. Awakened interest in taxation and finance	30
4. The claims of the parlements	36
5. The victory of the parlements in 1763	48
CHAPTER II
The Parlement of Provence and the Problem of Fiscal Disorder	55
1. Provence, parlement, and crown	56
2. The Provence memorials	69
3. The dilemma in the finances	73
4. A fundamental principle	76
CHAPTER III
Population and Statesmanship	85
1. The importance of facts about population	87
2. Proper treatment of the people	99
CHAPTER IV
Agriculture	114
1. Agriculture and the other forms of production	115
2. The land and its proprietors	118
3. The improvement of French agriculture	125
CHAPTER V
Industry	138
1. The form of encouragement	138
2. Restrictions and monopolies	141
3. Labor and guilds	147
4. Taxation and manufacturing	149
CHAPTER VI
Commerce	161
1. Tariffs and foreign trade	163
2. Shipping and colonies	170
3. Internal commerce	173

CHAPTER VII

The Role of Money	185
1. Maxims about money	187
2. The danger of great fortunes	192
3. The danger of debts	202

CHAPTER VIII

Toward a New Financial System	208
1. Maxims about taxation	208
2. France's main taxes	213
3. Toward a new tax system	234
4. Payment of France's debts	239

CHAPTER IX

Government and the Economic System: Conclusions	247
1. The art of government	247
2. Freedom versus intervention	253
3. Elements of mercantilism and laissez-faire	266
4. Conclusions	275

BIBLIOGRAPHY	281
--------------------	-----

INDEX	285
-------------	-----