

CONTENTS

CHAPTER I

ROBERT WALPOLE, THE MAN

	PAGE
England's economic policy after the Revolution	19
War with France	20
Increased national debt	20
England's need for a financier	20
Robert Walpole.....	21
Birth and early years	21
Death of father	21
Receives an estate of £2,000 a year.....	21
Enters Parliament.....	21
Student of financial questions	21
First speech a failure	21
Success in Aylesbury election trials, 1704	21
Member of the Council of the Lord High Admiral	21
Reform of the department.....	22
Wins the confidence of Godolphin.....	22
Secretary at War, 1708.....	22
Displays great business ability.....	22
Treasurer of the Navy	22
Reputation as a master of figures and accounts	22
Has charge of the impeachment of Dr. Sacheverell	22
Defeat of the Whigs.....	22
Resigns his office.....	22
Charged with venality	23
Found guilty and imprisoned ..	23
On release took prominent part in the opposition.....	23
Tories defeated	23
Appointed First Lord of the Treasury	23
Introduces resolutions regarding national debt.....	23
Resignation	23
Bursting of South Sea Bubble.....	24
Appointed First Lord of the Treasury	24

	PAGE
Coerced declaration of war against Spain, 1739.....	25
Resignation, 1742.....	25
Charges of corruption not substantiated	26
Sound advice often sought by the King.....	26
Death, 1745.....	26
Period of his administration of greatest interest to student of politics.....	27
Walpole's economic policy neglected.....	27
Necessity for such a study.....	28

CHAPTER II

FISCAL POLICY

Importance of the study of the fiscal policy of England	30
Changes in methods of borrowing introduced at the Revolution	30
Increase of national debt, 1701-1714.....	31
People aroused over the debt	31
Walpole, Chancellor of the Exchequer and First Lord of the Treasury.....	31
The King asks Parliament to devise scheme to pay national debts	32
Account of public debts ordered by the House.....	34
Resolutions regarding the national debt	35
Resignation of Walpole	36
Stanhope his successor	36
Resolutions basis of four funds	37
Sinking fund	38
Based on Walpole's resolution.....	38
Historians err as to the fund	38
First sinking fund in England but not the first in Europe.....	39
Surplus of fund and how appropriated.....	40
Reduction of the national debt by the fund	40
Walpole, Paymaster of Forces	41
South Sea Company	41
Its history.....	41
Struggle for conversion of national debts in 1720	44
South Sea Company successful	45
Speculative fever.....	46
Attempts to inflate stock of the company.....	46
Bursting of South Sea Bubble.....	46
Effect on England.....	47
Walpole called upon to restore credit	47
Committee of Investigation appointed.....	51
Bank Contract.....	51
Report of the Committee.....	52
Many ministers implicated.....	52

	PAGE
Powers of the South Sea Company checked	56
Exchequer Bills.....	59
Changes introduced by Walpole	60
Bank of England,	60
Loans made to the government	60
Stock of the Bank.....	61
Sinking fund	61
Fund encroached upon.....	62
Fund used for public services	64
Arguments by opposition against perversion.....	65
Further appropriations from the fund	66
Amounts taken from the fund.....	70
Reduction of Interest, 1737.....	71
Scheme of Barnard.....	72
Opposition of Walpole	73
Justification of Walpole's action	74
Ways and Means for raising revenue, 1701-1741.....	74
Conclusion	83

CHAPTER III

REFORM IN TAXATION

The problem of taxation.....	84
The land tax	84
Its history.....	85
The tax from 1721-1741	85
Rise of merchant classes	86
Political reasons for lowering the tax.....	87
Walpole's theory of taxation	88
Economic reasons for lowering the tax	89
Incidence of the tax	89
Tax on Papists	90
House Tax.....	91
Its history.....	91
Excise.....	92
Its history.....	93
Walpole's aim to check smuggling.....	94
Means.....	94
Change in duties on tea, coffee, cocoa-nuts and chocolate	95
Opposition	96
Malt tax	97
Its history.....	97
Changes introduced by Walpole	97

	PAGE
Excise on Compound spirits.....	98
Salt excise abolished	99
Reasons	99
Re-imposed	100
Walpole's argument for the tax.....	101
Opposition's arguments against.....	102
Theories of taxation brought forth in the controversy	103
Theories brought forth as to incidence of excise.....	104
Means used by opposition to arouse the people	105
First hint of the excise scheme	106
Anxiety of House over its introduction	107
Walpole's speech introducing his scheme	108
Excise scheme	109
Objections to scheme anticipated and answered by Walpole	110
Arguments by opposition against the scheme	112
Walpole's reply	114
Antagonism to scheme.....	115
Walpole drops the bill	117
Causes of failure	118
Warehouse system.....	119
Its history.....	120
Walpole changes to tax on luxuries	120
Controversy over excise scheme a political one.....	122
Nature of pamphlets	123
Other slight changes in excises and inland duties	124
Conclusion	125

CHAPTER IV

REFORMS IN THE TARIFF

Origin of the English system of customs.....	126
Tonnage	126
Poundage.....	126
Changes in the customs	126
Bullionists.....	127
Death blow to bullionistic theory	127
Scarcity of silver	128
Acts proposed for prohibition of precious metals	128
Origin of favorable balance-of-trade theory.....	128
Importance of agriculture.....	128
Views of North	129
Abolition of export duties on woollen goods.....	129
Industrial stage of mercantilism	129

	PAGE
King's speech in favor of aiding manufactures	130
Shipping first interest to statesmen.....	131
Then agriculture	131
Then industry	131
Repeal of duties on exports.....	131
Attention centers around industry	131
Repeal of duties on the importation of certain dyes.....	131
Simplification of customs	132
Beaver skins.....	132
Pepper	132
Mace.....	132
Cloves.....	132
Nutmegs	132
First step in tariff reform.....	133
Coinage duty	133
Change in duties on books	133
Change in the management of customs of England and Scotland	133
Importance of the change	133
Repeal of duties on salt used in herring industry... ..	134
Imposition of new duties on herrings.....	134
Abolition of duties on whale products	134
New Book of Rates	135
Repeal of additional duty of twenty per cent. on drugs imported	136
Changes in duties on snuff.....	136
Free importation of cochineal.....	136
Free importation of indigo... ..	137
Changes in duties on wine-lees.....	137
Duties on diamonds and precious stone abolished	137
Effect of the failure of excise scheme on tariff reform.....	138
Change in import duties on French oysters.....	138
Aim of mercantilistic period	138
Origin of smuggling	139
Its history.....	139
Means of checking it	139
Laws to stop clandestine trade	140
Increase of powers of excise officers.....	141
Strict regulations to govern sale of coffee and tea and the making of chocolate	141
Greater rewards given for confiscated goods.....	141
Laws against smuggling made more severe	142
Powers of officers extended	143
Abuse of powers of excise officers.....	144
Effect of the abuse	144
Conclusion	144

CHAPTER V

BOUNTIES AND COLONIAL POLICY

Commodities for export in seventeenth century.....	145
Agricultural interests strong	145
Bounty on corn	145
Great development of agriculture.....	146
Exports of corn, 1697-1738.....	146
Imports of corn.....	146
Bounties paid.....	146
Checks to fraud in measuring corn.....	147
Allowances granted on the exportation of English-made silk goods	148
Bounties granted on British-made sails exported	149
Bounty on exportation of British-made gunpowder	150
Bounty on ships engaged in whale fishery.....	150
Bounty granted on British refined sugar	151
Bounty granted on exportation of spirits drawn from corn.....	151
Drawbacks	152
History	153
War against fraud and smuggling	154
Regulation of trade with Isle of Man	154
Repeal of drawbacks on re-exportation of foreign sails	154
Repeal of drawback on re-exportation of foreign paper	155
Repeal of drawback on re-exportation of foreign oysters	155
Colonial policy	156
Encourage production of raw materials	156
Bounty on hemp and timber continued.....	157
Copper an enumerated commodity	158
Regulations governing cutting of white pine trees	159
Rice allowed to be carried directly from Carolina to Europe, south of Cape Finnesterre	159
Georgia founded.....	160
Privilege of Carolina extended to Georgia.....	160
Regulation of hat industry.....	160
Reduction of duty on colonial grown coffee	161
Causes of Molasses Act, 1733	162
Provisions.....	162
Effects	163
Privileges granted for shipping of sugar	164
Conclusion.....	165

CHAPTER VI

INDUSTRIAL POLICY

Revolution a new epoch in England's economic policy.....	166
Causes	166
Imitation of Colbert	166
Revocation of the Edict of Nantes	166
Importance	167
Policy to encourage industry.....	167
Aids to industry	167
Government surveillance over manufacturing.....	169
Regulations governing making of brick and tile	169
Regulations governing making of cloths and linens	170
Encouragement to makers of sail-cloth	171
Irish goods smuggled to Europe.....	171
Care taken to check this trade	171
Exportation of colonial made hats or felts prohibited	172
Manufacture of narrow woollen cloths regulated	172
Manufacture of silver and gold wares regulated.....	172
Labor problem	173
Assessment of wages fallen into disuse	173
Combinations.....	173
Greatest strength in the woollen manufactures.....	173
Attempt by royal mandate to check them.....	173
Failed.....	173
Petitions to Parliament against combinations..	173
Act to prevent unlawful combinations of workmen	174
Provisions	174
Petitions of weavers against master clothiers.....	175
No attention paid to petitions by the House	176
Combinations increase	176
Labor strike.....	176
Success of the laborers	176
Beginning of the social chasm between labor and capital.....	177
Public attention directed to manufactures.....	177
Growth of the woollen manufactures	178
Iron industry	179
Silk manufactures.....	180
Copper manufactures	180
Brass manufactures.....	180
Linen industry.....	181
Growth of industrial and commercial towns	181
Great increase in export of corn.....	182

	PAGE
Development of agriculture.....	183
Conclusion,	184

CHAPTER VII

FOREIGN TRADE

Importance of commerce to England.....	186
Early commerce dependent upon the wills of Kings.....	186
Important work of Cromwell.....	187
Downfall of the Dutch commercial supremacy	187
Navigation Laws.....	187
Importance	187
Prohibition of importation of many French commodities	187
Repeal of the act.....	188
Revolution introduced new era in England's foreign trade policy	188
Cause of Methuen Treaty.....	189
Great trading companies	189
East India Company.....	190
Origin and history.....	190
Supported by Walpole	191
Ostend Company.....	191
Competes with East India Company	191
Company dissolved	192
Turkish Company	192
Origin and history.....	193
Favored by Walpole.....	193
African Company	194
Origin and history.....	194
Assisted by Walpole.....	194
South Sea Company	195
Origin and history.....	195
Assiento Contract	195
Enmity of Spain	196
Engages in whale fishery	197
Failure of enterprise.....	197
Illicit trade.....	198
Petitions of Jamaica merchants against seizures by Spanish ships.....	198
Demand by House of Commons for redress	199
Preliminary convention with King of Spain.....	199
Terms	200
Harsh demands of Spanish king.....	200
The people dissatisfied.....	200
Declaration of war	200

	PAGE
English exports	201
Loss caused by the war	201
South Sea Company cause of trouble with Spain	201
South Sea Company a detriment to English trade.	201
Spanish trading cessions annulled, 1750	202
Great development of colonial trade	202
Policy of Walpole in accordance with the colonial system	202
State of trade in Massachusetts	203
New England States	203
Virginia and Maryland	204
Carolina	204
State of manufacturing in the colonies	204
Total exports and imports of England, 1720.	204
Total exports and imports of England, 1738	204
Increase of royal navy	205
Conclusion	206

CHAPTER VIII

ENGLAND'S DEBT TO WALPOLE

Political importance of Walpole's administration	207
Well defined economic policy	207
Goal of his political policy	207
Fiscal policy	208
Assistance given to the manufacturer	208
Caution necessary in the repeal of import duties	209
Firm belief of Walpole in the colonial system	210
Colonial policy	210
Checks to smuggling	211
Change in payment of exchequer bills	212
Perversion of the sinking fund	212
Revival of the salt tax and effects	213
Excise scheme.	213
Failure	213
Extension of warehouse system	214
Opposition of Walpole to reduction of interest in 1737	214
Tests for a sound financier	215
Walpole a shrewd financier	215
Policy to encourage commerce	216
Aids to industry	216
Conclusion	216

