

CONTENTS

Preface ix

List of Acronyms and Abbreviations xiii

Note on Romanization and Citations xvii

Introduction i

Understanding Inter-Korean Relations i

Political Activism and Inter-Korean Relations 6

1. Political Activism, Discursive Power, and Norm Negotiation 9

Traditional Approach 10

Alternative Accounts of Inter-Korean Relations 12

Inter-Korean Relations and North Korean Human Rights 16

Political Activism and Inter-Korean Relations 18

Conceptual Framework 20

Historical Case Studies 41

2. Political Activism Under Yushin and the Kwangju Uprising,
May 1980 47

First Republic: Rhee Syngman 48

Second Republic: Chang Myŏn 50

Third Republic: Park Chung Hee 53

Yushin: The Fourth Republic 57

Anticommunism and Nationalism Under Park Chung Hee	62
Political Activism Under Yushin	66
The End of Yushin	76
3. From Kwangju to Democracy, 1980–1987	79
Dominant Discourses of the Fifth Republic	81
Political Activism in the Fifth Republic	90
Democratic Transition	114
4. South Korea in Transition, 1987–1997	119
Roh Tae Woo, 1987–1992	122
Kim Young Sam, 1992–1997	125
Post-1987 Political Activism	132
The North Korean Famine	148
5. A New Era of Inter-Korean Relations, 1998–2007	153
Kim Dae Jung, 1998–2002	156
Roh Moo Hyun, 2003–2007	160
Political Activism Under the Sunshine Policy	165
Transnational Advocacy and South Korean Discourses	188
Conclusion:
Inter-Korean Relations from a South Korean Perspective	197
A New Age of Conservative Politics: Inter-Korean Relations Under
Lee Myung Bak, 2008–2012	200
Future Prospects	205
Notes	209
References	247
Index	263