

Contents

	Preface	xi
	Acknowledgments	xiii
PART I	CONSTRUCTING ANIMALS: ANIMAL CATEGORIES
Chapter 1	Human-Animal Studies	3
	What Is Human-Animal Studies?	4
	History of HAS	7
	Human-Animal Studies as a Way of Seeing	10
	Where Are Animals?	12
	Defining the Animal	16
	Understanding Animals and Their Uses	18
	Methodological Problems	20
	Theoretical Starting Points	22
	Real-World Implications of Human-Animal Studies	29
	Coming to Animal Studies, by Susan McHugh	39
Chapter 2	Animal-Human Borders	42
	Animals and Humans: The Great Divide?	42
	Non-Western Understandings	44
	Speciesism and the Rise of the Human-Animal Border	47
	Evolution and the Continuity Between the Species	52

Chapter 3	The Social Construction of Animals	57
	Biological Systems of Classification	59
	Other Systems of Classification	60
	How Does One Become a Certain Type of Animal?	62
	The Sociozoologic Scale	64
	A New System of Classification	67
	The Social Construction of Animals, by Leslie Irvine	70
PART II	USING ANIMALS: HUMAN-ANIMAL ECONOMIES
Chapter 4	Animals “in the Wild” and in Human Societies	75
	Animals and Humans in the Paleolithic Era	76
	Subsistence Hunting and the Human-Animal Relationship	79
	From Subsistence to Sport	80
	Colonial Expansion and Animals	82
	Controversies Surrounding Subsistence Hunting	84
	Modern Relationships with Wildlife: Hunting and Conservation	85
	Human-Wildlife Conflicts	88
	The Colonial Animal, by Walter Putnam	99
Chapter 5	The Domestication of Animals	102
	History of Domestication	102
	Results of Domestication	106
	Altering the Animal Body	109
	Is Domestication Good or Bad?	113
Chapter 6	Display, Performance, and Sport	117
	Why Do We Watch Animals?	117
	Zoos	119
	Marine Mammal Parks	127
	The Public Reaction to Zoos and Marine Mammal Parks	130
	Circuses	132
	Animal Racing	135
	Animal Fighting	137
	Alternative Ways of Watching Animals	139
	Animal Ethics Theory and Practice in the Tourism Industry, by David Fennell	148

Chapter 7	The Making and Consumption of Meat	151
	Meat Taboos	152
	How Animals Become Meat	155
	Meat Consumption in the Past	156
	Modern Meat Production	157
	Why We Eat Meat: The Political Economy of Agribusiness	162
	Slaughterhouse Workers	165
	Cultural Implications of Modern Meat Production and Consumption	167
	Ethics and Meat Eating	169
Chapter 8	The Pet Animal	174
	What Makes a Pet a Pet?	175
	The Rise of Pet Keeping	178
	The Development of the Modern Pet Industry	181
	Why We Keep Pets	182
	The Human-Pet Relationship	184
	Love and Grief	186
	Development of Humane Attitudes Through Pets	189
	Contradictory Attitudes Toward Pets	191
	Pets and Domination	193
	Pets as Holy Anomalies, by David Redmalm	201
Chapter 9	Animals and Science	204
	The History of Vivisection	205
	The Scope of Animal Research and Testing	208
	Environmental Enrichment	213
	Animals as Stand-Ins for Humans	214
	The Social Construction of the Lab Animal	215
	The History of the Antivivisection Movement	218
	Alternatives to Animal Research and Testing	220
	The Battle Over Animal Research Today	223
	Mourning Laboratory Animals	227
Chapter 10	Animal-Assisted Activities	233
	Animals as Human Assistants	233
	Working Animals Today	237

Assistance Animals	240
Animal-Assisted Interventions	243
The Human-Animal Bond: Benefits to Humans	245
What About Benefits to Animals?	247
Animal Labor: Thinking (and Acting) with Care, by Kendra Coulter	253

PART III ATTITUDES TOWARD ANIMALS

Chapter 11 Working with Animals	257
Ethnographic Fieldwork	258
People Who Work with Animals	259
Animal Rescue Volunteers	261
Shelter Workers and Veterinarians	264
Ranchers	268
Laboratory Workers	269
Slaughterhouse Workers	270
Working with People Who Work with Animals, by Clinton Sanders	277
Chapter 12 Violence to Animals	280
Institutionalized Violence to Animals	281
Culture-Specific Violence	284
Deviant Violence	286
The Link Between Violence to Animals and Violence to Humans	289
Domestic Violence and Animal Abuse	293
Treatment and Prevention	296
Legislation	297
Animal Abuse and Interpersonal Violence: What Else Do We Need to Know? by Lisa Lunghofer	305
Chapter 13 Human Oppression and Animal Suffering	308
Interlinked Systems of Exploitation	308
The Roots of Oppression	309
Othering and Essentializing	311
Sexism and Speciesism	313
Racism, Slavery, the Holocaust, and Animal Exploitation	316
What's the Problem with Comparisons?	320

Racism and Animal Advocacy	321
Capitalism and the Expansion of Oppression	325
When "Humans" Are First, Everyone Else Is Last: On the Shared Ontological Foundations of Racism, Speciesism, and Anthropocentrism, by Maneesha Deckha	334
 PART IV IMAGINING ANIMALS: ANIMALS IN HUMAN THOUGHT
 Chapter 14 Animals in Symbol and Art	339
The Use of Animals in Human Language	340
Animals as Symbols	344
Animals in Artwork	347
Mirrors for Human Identities	353
Art as a Way of Knowing (and Not Knowing) Animals, by Maria Lux	359
 Chapter 15 Animals in Religion and Folklore	362
Animals in Religious Thought	362
Animal Tales	367
Animal-Human Transformations	370
Religious Symbolism	373
Animal Cults	374
Sacrificial Lambs	378
Communities of Faith and the Ethical Treatment of Animals	380
What Do Animals and Religion Have to Do with Each Other? by Laura Hobgood-Oster	387
 Chapter 16 Animals in Literature and Film	390
Animals in Literature	391
Animals in Children's Literature	394
Talking Animals	397
Animals in Film and TV	399
Performing Animals	404
The Internet Is Made of Cats	405
Prying Open Our Critical Awareness: Reading Animality in Literature and the Arts, by Carrie Rohman	412

PART V KNOWING AND RELATING TO ANIMALS: ANIMAL BEHAVIOR AND ANIMAL ETHICS

Chapter 17	Animal Behavior Studies and Ethology	417
	History of Animal Behavior Studies	417
	Animal Behavior Studies and Reductionism	421
	The Rise of Modern Ethology	423
	Anthropomorphism	425
	Animal Intelligence	427
	Animal Emotions	430
	Animal Language	434
	The Animal Self	440
	Naming and Looking, by Alexandra Horowitz	448
Chapter 18	The Moral Status of Animals	450
	History of Philosophical Debates on Animals	451
	Ethical Humanism and the Rights of Animals	456
	Peter Singer and Utilitarianism	459
	Tom Regan and Animal Rights	460
	Other Approaches	461
	The Morality of Awareness, by Kathie Jenni	467
Chapter 19	The Animal Protection Movement	470
	Conserving Nature	470
	The Movement's Precursors	472
	The Animal Rights Movement: The First Wave	476
	The Animal Rights Movement: The Second Wave	480
	The Modern Animal Rights Movement	482
	Demographics: Who Becomes an Animal Rights Activist?	487
	Place of the Movement in Contemporary Society	491
	Defining Critical Animal Studies, by Vasile Stanescu	499
Chapter 20	The Future of the Human-Animal Relationship	502
	They Talk, We Listen, by Gay Bradshaw	509
	Bibliography	513
	Index	575