

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: Democratic Faith and Education in Unstable Times,
by Eric Thomas Weber i

PART I

Democracy and the United States

1. Democracy Is Radical 19
2. Address to National Negro Conference 24
3. A Symposium on Woman's Suffrage 27
4. The Challenge of Democracy to Education 30
5. America in the World 40
6. Our National Dilemma 44
7. Pragmatic America 49

8. The Basic Values and Loyalties of Democracy 55
9. Creative Democracy—The Task Before Us 59

PART II

Politics and Power

10. Politics and Culture 69
11. Intelligence and Power 78
12. Force, Violence, and the Law 83
13. Why I Am Not a Communist 88
14. Dualism and the Split Atom 93
15. Is There Hope for Politics? 98
16. A Liberal Speaks Out for Liberalism 105
17. Future of Liberalism 112

PART III

Education

18. What Is a School For? 117
19. Dewey Outlines Utopian Schools 121
20. Industrial Education—A Wrong Kind 127
21. Why Have Progressive Schools? 133
22. Can Education Share in Social Reconstruction? 143

- 23. Nationalizing Education 148
- 24. The Teacher and the Public 156
- 25. Democracy and Education in the World of Today 161

PART IV

Social Ethics and Economic Justice

- 26. Capitalistic or Public Socialism? 173
- 27. Does Human Nature Change? 185
- 28. The Ethics of Animal Experimentation 193
- 29. Ethics and International Relations 200
- 30. Dewey Describes Child's New World 211
- 31. The Collapse of a Romance 217
- 32. The Economic Situation: A Challenge to Education 223
- 33. The Jobless—A Job for All of Us 231

PART V

Science and Society

- 34. The Influence of Darwinism on Philosophy 237
- 35. Science, Belief and the Public 249
- 36. Social Science and Social Control 255
- 37. Education and Birth Control 260

38. The Supreme Intellectual Obligation 263

39. The Revolt against Science 270

PART VI

Philosophy and Culture

40. The Case of the Professor and the Public Interest 277

41. Social Absolutism 282

42. Some Factors in Mutual National Understanding 289

43. The Basis for Hope 299

44. Art as Our Heritage 303

45. The Value of Historical Christianity 308

46. What Humanism Means to Me 314

.....

References 319

Index 323