

CONTENTS

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS xi

Introduction: On Narrating Practice with Children and Adolescents

MERY F. DIAZ AND BENJAMIN HEIM SHEPARD 1

PART I: Ethnographies, Narrative Inquiries, and Life Stories

Chapter One

From Disempowerment to Self-Belief: A Center of Hope for Vulnerable Youth in Cape Town

SHARON JOHNSON 31

Chapter Two

Aging Out and on My Own: Stories of Youth Transitions Out of Foster Care

SABRINA GONZALEZ 48

Chapter Three

Dreaming Despite Status: Immigrant Youth in Contingent Migration Contexts

STEPHEN RUSZCZYK 66

viii
CONTENTS

Chapter Four

“Hear Me”: Collaborating with Youth to Address Sexual Exploitation

MARGOT K. JACKSON, VERA CAINE, JANICE HUBER, AND MUNEEARAH AMIN VASTANI 84

Chapter Five

In Between Worlds: Narrating Ecological Heritage
Practices for Teenage Wellness

KRISTINA BAINES 102

Chapter Six

Neighborhood Surveillance and the Prison Assembly Line

TREVOR B. MILTON 118

Chapter Seven

Considering Inequalities: Experiences in Part-Time
Youth Work

YASEMIN BESEN-CASSINO 133

PART II: Autoethnography and Storytelling

Chapter Eight

Finding Justice: Transforming Schools with the Children We Serve

MERY F. DIAZ 149

Chapter Nine

Fitting In, Letting Go, and Other Common Concerns for Children with Disabilities

SHERRI L. RINGS 171

Chapter Ten

Between Life Stories and the Struggle for Homeless Youth

BENJAMIN HEIM SHEPARD 188

Chapter Eleven

Childhood and the Politics of Care

ELIZABETH PALLEY 214

*Chapter Twelve*Living on the Frontline: Reality-Based Drug Education in the Era of Black Lives Matter

JERRY OTERO 231

*Chapter Thirteen*Poor Mothers, Poor Children: The Feminization of Poverty in Rural India

GRETTA M. FERNANDES 247

PART III: Practice Reflections and Case Narratives

Chapter Fourteen

Understand the Brain, Understand Our Children

DEBORAH COURTNEY 263

*Chapter Fifteen*Beyond Deficits: Shifting Perspectives in Child and Youth Mental Health

MARGOT K. JACKSON 281

Chapter Sixteen

Shifting Identities, Shifting Meanings: Adolescent Siblings and Grief

ERICA GOLDBLATT HYATT 298

*Chapter Seventeen*Creating Spaces for Sam: A Story of Healing Trauma
Through Narrative Means and Art Therapy

SUSAN MCDONALD AND STEPHANIE WISE 313

Chapter Eighteen

Stories of Youth and Family Navigating a New Frontier of Social Media

REBECCA G. JUDD AND BENJAMIN T. MAY 331

CONTRIBUTORS 351

INDEX 355

