

Contents

Acknowledgments ix

Introduction: The Heuristic of Crises: Reclaiming Critical Voices 1

DIDIER FASSIN AND AXEL HONNETH

PART ONE. SOCIAL MOVEMENTS

1. Capitalism Contested: Britain in the Aftermath of World War I 11

CLARA ELISABETTA MATTEI

2. Striking a Rock with Eggs: Resistance and Repression

After Tiananmen 32

ROWENA XIAOQING HE

3. Undoing the Rule of Market Laws: Social Critique and the Making of Normative Futures 54

RODRIGO CORDERO

4. “Layoffs Are Murder, but They Are Also Everyday Life”: A Critique of Labor and Living in the Era of Ghost Capital 76

HAE YEON CHOO

5. Remaking the Demos “from Below”? Critical Theory, Migrant Struggles, and Epistemic Resistance 97

ROBIN CELIKATES

PART TWO. INTELLECTUAL ENGAGEMENTS

6. Peace, or the Moral Economy of War: Between W. E. B. Du Bois and Sayyid Quṭb 123
MURAD IDRIS
7. Personal Pronouns and Political Protest: Henry David Thoreau and Ta-Nehisi Coates as Critics in Times of Crisis 145
DIETER THOMÄ
8. Becoming Anticolonial in Northern Namibia, 1950–1954: The Emergence of Both Crisis and Critique from Everyday Interpretations 166
GREGOR DOBLER
9. How Do Technocrats Address Crises? From Structural to Humanitarian Approaches to Crises in Latin American Developmentalism 191
ALDO MARCHESI
10. Against Crisis: Violence and Continuity in Manus Island Prison 211
ANNE McNEVIN

PART THREE. AFFECTED COMMUNITIES

11. Love Trumps Hate: Community Caretaking in an Era of Mass Deportation 235
DENISE BRENNAN
12. Helping Refugees in Rural Germany: Ambivalences of Compassion 255
GRETA WAGNER
13. Toward a Theory of Climate Praxis: Confronting Climate Change in a World of Struggle 271
DANIEL ALDANA COHEN AND DAVID BOND
14. The Discovery of Contamination: Forever Chemicals and the Temporality of Critique 293
DAVID BOND
15. Democracy Without Demos: The Disappearance of the Working Class and the Rise of Abstention in French Political Life 310
ANNE-CLAIRE DEFOSSEZ

PART FOUR. REFLEXIVE PERSPECTIVES

16. New Technologies and the Moral Economy of White Nationalism 337

HECTOR AMAYA

17. “The Only Way Out Is Through”: Anthropology as Critical Praxis
in Times of Crisis 354

MUNIRA KHAYYAT

18. Social Movements and Social Theory 370

MICHAEL WALZER

19. The Invisible Rebellion: Working People Under the
New Capitalist Economy 387

AXEL HONNETH

20. Conspiracy Theories as Ambiguous Critique of Crisis 403

DIDIER FASSIN

Contributors 421

Index 425

