

CONTENTS

Foreword by James Gutmann	vii
Editor's Note	xiii
Acknowledgment	xiv
1. The Meeting: 1917–1933	1
2. Under the Parental Roof: 1851–1870	16
3. Student Years in Europe: 1870–1873	27
4. New World's Mission: 1873–1876	36
5. Ethical Culture—A New Calling: 1876—1877	47
6. A Spearhead of Social Ethics: 1877–1880	60
7. Early Associations and Marriage: 1878–1882	74
8. Apprenticing with Adler—Four Professional Colleagues: 1880s	81
9. Conscience in the City: 1880s and 1890s	94
10. Vision at Noon and Allies Abroad: 1891–1896	107
11. Aspirations for School and Society: 1900–1931	121
12. Prospects for Organized Democracy: 1892–1922	138
13. Marriage and Family in Organized Democracy: 1876—1927	159
14. New Companions and Leaders: 1893–1933	174
15. Wrestling with American Growth: 1895–1933	183
16. Philosophical Perspective: 1900–1933	209
17. Felix Adler's Religious Caring: A Summary	224
Epilogue: Memoir and Prospect	249
Ethical Culture since Felix Adler: An Afterword by Edward L. Ericson	257
Principal Writings	264
Index	267

Illustrations appear as a group following p. 112

