

ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

THE CONTRIBUTORS to this volume met to share their work and plan the volume at a conference at Princeton University in February 2017 that was generously sponsored by the Numata Foundation (BDK), as well as the Princeton University Center for the Study of Religion and the Department of Religion. The Center for the Study of Religion has also provided financial support for this book's production. A sabbatical leave from Temple University enabled Douglas Duckworth to lay the groundwork for his work on this project.

As always, thanks go to our families, with love and appreciation for cultivations of generosity and patience.
