

CONTENTS

PREFACE

A MODERN EVOLUTIONARY APPROACH TO HISTORY OF RELIGION STUDIES

xi

INTRODUCTORY SECTION

APPLYING EVOLUTIONARY THEORY AND PHILOSOPHY TO
ASPECTS OF HUMAN CULTURE

1

1

Religions, Classification, and Phylogenetic Pattern

3

2

Explaining Hypothetical Patterns with Evolutionary Process Theory

23

MAIN SECTION

THE HISTORICAL DIVERSIFICATION (EVOLUTION) OF RELIGIONS
43

3

Early Supernaturalism and the Development of Organized Religion
45

4

Indigenous Eastern Organized Religion and Asian Cyclicism
71

5

Afro-Euro-Mediterranean Organized Religion, Beginning with Old World Hard Polytheism
159

6

Linear Monotheism
261

7

The Early Diversification of Abrahamic Monotheism
287

8

Traditional Christianity
323

9

Reformation Christianity
367

10

Biblical Demiurgism: A Subgroup of “Gnosticism”

415

11

Islam

439

CONCLUDING SECTION

FOUR HISTORICAL TRENDS IN THE EVOLUTION OF RELIGIONS
AND CONSIDERATIONS FOR THE FUTURE OF HUMANITY

485

12

Organized Religions and the Evolution of Human Society

487

END MATERIALS

Acknowledgments

515

Glossary of Select Terms

517

Notes

529

Chapter Citations

595

References

603

Figure Credits

643

Subject Index

651