

CONTENTS

Editors' Acknowledgments and a Note on the Texts vii

Albert O. Hirschman at the Federal Reserve, 1946–1952 1

MICHELE ALACEVICH AND PIER FRANCESCO ASSO

I PATTERNS OF EUROPEAN RECONSTRUCTION: MACROECONOMIC CHALLENGES

- 1 Higher Interest Rates and the Credit Shortage in France 47
 - 2 Exchange Control in Italy—I 53
 - 3 Exchange Control in Italy—II 65
 - 4 France and Italy: Patterns of Reconstruction 71
- 5 Public Finance, Money Markets, and Inflation in France 99
 - 6 Credit Restrictions and Deflation in Italy 112

II THE MARSHALL PLAN AND THE END OF DISCRIMINATION

- 7 Trade Structure of the “Marshall Plan Countries” 123
- 8 Inflation and Balance of Payments Deficit 130

VI ✎ CONTENTS

- 9 Dollar Shortage and Discrimination 135
10 The OEEC *Interim Report on the European
Recovery Program*—A Summary 141
11 International Aspects of a Recession 161
12 The U.S. Recession and the Dollar Position of the OEEC Countries 177

III EUROPEAN INTEGRATION AND
THE WAY BACK TO MULTILATERALISM

- 13 The New Intra-European Payments Scheme 187
14 Proposal for a European Monetary Authority 196
15 Liberalization of the ECA Dollar: Introductory Note 210
16 European Payments Union—A Possible Basis
for Agreement 214
17 Multilateralism and European Integration 228
18 The European Payments Union 248
19 Size and Distribution of the Public Debt in Selected Countries 264

IV THE ECONOMIC CONSEQUENCES OF U.S. HEGEMONY

- 20 The Long-Run Effect of Development and Industrialization
Abroad on the United States 277
21 The Influence of U.S. Economic Conditions on Foreign Countries (with Robert Solomon) 294