

Contents

1 Planning in Perspective: Possibilities and Limitations	1
I General Approaches to Planning	3
II Development Plans—Systematized	16
III A Sampling of Historical Experience with Planning	33
2 Planning: The Institutional Aspects	67
IV Legal Provisions for Planning: Planning Organs	69
V The Plan and the Market	86
VI Some Broader Institutional-Political Issues	104
3 Aims, Strategies, and Policies of Development Planning	123
VII Basic Ends: Domestic Economic Aspects	125
VIII Development Strategies: International and Social Aspects	146
4 The Elaboration of Development Plans	165
IX Systematic Analysis of the Aspirations of the Population for Planning Purposes	167
X Utilization of Economic Theory and Models of Growth in Planning	183
5 Scientific and Quantitative Evidence and Planning	201
XI Planning: The Evidence Furnished by Science and Technology	203
XII The Base Period of the Plan: The Statistical Evidence	217
XIII The Overall Statistical Evidence: National and Social Accounts	235

X CONTENTS

6 Techniques of Planning	251
XIV Techniques of Planning: An Overall Review	253
XV The Input/Output Approach in Planning	278
XVI Econometric Models and Planning	301
7 Plan Implementation	325
XVII The Instruments of Plan Implementation	327
XVIII Plan Implementation and Statistics	344
8 Planning and Politics	371
XIX Planning and Political Priorities	373
Index	393

The Process of Economic Planning

