

Contents

Notes on Contributors	vii
------------------------------	-----

Introduction to Volume Two	1
----------------------------	---

Lina Khatib

Storytelling and Cultural Politics

Stories as Social Critique: The Vision of China in the Films of Jia Zhangke	11
--	----

Konrad Ng

Taonga (cultural treasures): Reflections on Maori Storytelling in the Cinema of Aotearoa/New Zealand	21
--	----

Hester Joyce

The Minjung Cultural Movement and Korean Cinema of the 1980s: The Influence of Minjung Theatre and Art in Lee Jang-ho's Films	35
--	----

Nam Lee

On How to Tell a Revolution: Alsino y el cóndor	50
--	----

Robert Dash and Patricia Varas

Storytelling and Postcolonialism

Telling Stories About Unknown People in Faraway Countries: U.S. Travelogues About Mexico in the 1930s and 1940s	65
--	----

Isabel Arredondo

Memory and Tradition as a Postcolonial Response in the Films of Kyrgyzstan's Aktan Abdykalykov	76
---	----

Willow Mullins

'Postcolonial Beaux' Stratagem: Singing and Dancing Back with Carmen in African Films Yifen T. Beus	90
--	----

Telling Women's Stories

Heard/Symbolic Voices: The Nouba of the Women of Mont Chenoua and Women's Film in the Maghreb Zahia Smail Salhi	103
Women's Stories and Public Space in Iranian New Wave Film Anna Dempsey	122
Cinematic Images of Women at a Time of National(ist) Crisis: The Case of Three Yugoslav Films Dijana Jelača	133
History as Science Fiction: Women of Action in Hong Kong Cinema Saša Vojković	144

Storytelling and Religio-Cultural Encounters

Clouds of Unknowing: Buddhism and Bhutanese Cinema Shohini Chaudhuri and Sue Clayton	157
Claiming Space, Time and History in The Journals of Knud Rasmussen Darrell Varga	172
Qissa and Popular Hindi Cinema Anjali Gera Roy	183
Index	195