

Contents

	Introduction	3
1	This is Regionville	8
2	Illness in Regionville	30
3	The Use of the Physician	53
4	The Use of the Hospital	78
5	The Use of the Druggist	86
6	The Use of Non-medical Personnel	93
7	Other Aspects of Health in Regionville	112
8	The Use of the Dentist	118
9	What Regionville Thinks about Medical Care	126
10	Dilemmas and Possibilities	138
	Appendix: Methodology	159
	Index	173

Figures

1. Schematic Representation of the Place of the Village of Regionville in the Regionville Community 11
2. Schematic Representation of the Relation of Regionville to Other Communities in the Area 13
3. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to Place of Residence in the Regionville Community (514 Families) 19
4. Schematic Representation of the Occurrence of Disabling Illnesses 40
5. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to the Reported Incidence of Disabling Illnesses among 2,204 Persons 42
6. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to the Utilization of Treatment in 2,168 Reported Disabling Illnesses 43
7. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to the Pattern of Care in 1,634 Reported Illnesses 45
8. Schematic Representation of the Occurrence of Non-disabling Illnesses 50
9. Social-Class Membership and the Employment of a Family Doctor 55
10. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to Opinions Regarding Medical Care Received in the Last Reported Illness 74

11. Changes in Opinion of the Hospital from the Second to the Fifteenth Interviews	83
12. Social-Class Membership and the Treatment of Illnesses by Non-medical Personnel	108
13. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to the Occurrence of Preventive Health Examinations	113
14. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to the Householder's Possession of Health Insurance of Any Kind	115
15. Social-Class Membership and the Employment of a Family Dentist	119
16. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to the Type of Treatment for Which 401 Individuals Visited the Dentist	121
17. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to Knowledge of Political Activity in the Field of Health	127
18. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to Opinions Regarding Governmental Provision of Medical Care	128
19. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to Opinions Regarding Group Practice	134
20. The Relation of Social-Class Membership to Opinions Regarding Use of a Medical Social Worker in the Community	136
21. Schedule for Obtaining Basic Family Data	168

Tables

1. Health Resources Used by the 514 Families in the Panel	27
2. Approximate Number of Persons per Health Care Facility and Personnel Unit in the Geographic Area Including Regionville	28
3. Percentage of Respondents in Each Social Class Recognizing Specified Symptoms as Needing Medical Attention	32
4. Symptoms Reported as Present (But Not Considered an Illness) at Time of Interview in 59 Individuals, by Social Class	41
5. Number and Percent of Illnesses Reported, by Type of Care and Social Class	44
6. The 2,168 Illnesses Reported for 1,256 Individuals, with Percent Untreated, by Social Class	46
7. Percentage of Disabling Illnesses with Specified Number of Days Lost, by Social Class	48
8. Disabling and Non-disabling Illnesses per Person among Individuals for Whom Illness Was Reported, by Social Class	51
9. Reasons Given for Selecting a Specified Physician as Family Doctor	56
10. Percentages of Specified Reactions to Treatment in

1,151 Illnesses Entirely Treated by Physician, by Social Class	75
11. Percentages of Families Reporting Possession of Specified Types of "Remedy," by Social Class	88
12. Number and Percent of Households Having Specified Attitudes about Chiropractic Services, by Social Class	94
13. Use of Non-medical Personnel in Treatment of 316 Illnesses, by Social Class and Type of Care	107
14. Types of Illness (as Specified by the Respondent) Treated by Non-medical Personnel	110
15. Percentage Distribution of Types of Dental Treatment, by Social-Class Membership	122
16. Percentage Distribution of Reasons Given For and Against a National Health Insurance Program, by Social Class	129
17. The Major Focus of Each of the Sixteen Interviews	167

The Health of Regionville

