

TABLE OF CONTENTS

PREFACE	5
-------------------	---

CHAPTER I

THE EXPANSION OF VIRGINIA DURING THE GENERATION PRECEDING THE REVOLUTION

	PAGE
Physical features of Virginia	13
Importance of the rivers	13
Evidences of expansion	14
Growth of population	14
Increase of trade	15
Settlement of the west	16
New counties	18
Removal of the capital westward	18
New towns, roads, etc.	18

CHAPTER II

THE LEGISLATIVE AND CONSTITUTIONAL HERITAGE OF THE REVOLUTIONARY PERIOD

The conventions	21
Composed chiefly of burgesses	21
Purpose of the chapter	21
Framework of the government before the Revolution	22
Events of 1752-1770 which developed independent spirit in the as- sembly	23
Use of royal veto	23
Pistole fee. Randolph mission	25
Parson's cause	27
Agent. Committee of correspondence	31
Lee and Henry on use of veto	32
Stamp act controversy	34
Act suggested 1764	35
Agitation in Virginia	35
Passage of act	39

	PAGE
Henry resolutions	39
Effect on the people	41
The Mercer incident	44
Bland's "Inquiry"	46
Effect of repeal	47
Townshend acts	48
Early rumors in Virginia	48
Massachusetts' circular letter	49
Virginia protests	50
Governor Botetourt	52
Virginia sustains Massachusetts	53
Dissolution of assembly	55
Meeting at Hay's	55
Association, 1769	56
Repeal of the duties on glass, etc.	57
Association, 1770	58
Petition of the House	59
Period of quiet	60

CHAPTER III

GOVERNOR DUNMORE AND THE END OF THE COLONIAL SYSTEM

Character of Dunmore	61
His instructions	62
Rift appears between royal government and assembly	63
Incident of counterfeiters	63
Committee of correspondence	64
Assembly meets May 5, 1774	65
News of Port Bill	65
Fast-day resolution	65
Dissolution	65
Assembly of June, 1775	65
Powder incident	66
Effect on the people	67
Henry	68
Courts	70
Congresses approved	70
North's conciliation	71
Refusal of the House	71
House inquiry	73
Governor's fears; retreat	73
Deadlock	74
House acts without the governor	74
Virginia's attitude toward the governors	74

CHAPTER IV

PAGE

THE BEGINNINGS OF THE REVOLUTIONARY MOVEMENT,
TO MARCH, 1775

Meeting at Hay's 1769	76
Suggestions of a committee of correspondence	76
Its appointment, 1773	77
Effect in other colonies	78
Port Bill and popular sentiment in Virginia	79
Dissolution May 26, 1774	79
Association	81
Arrival of letters from the north	82
Call for August Convention	83
The August Convention	83
Its call a momentous step	83
Interest among the people	84
Address of "E. B."	84
Addresses by "British American"	85
County meetings	87
Lee and Samuel Adams	90
Jefferson's "Summary view"	91
Acts of the Convention	93
Association	94
County committees	94
Delegates to Congress	94
Instructions	95
Meeting of the Continental Congress	96
Appointment of county committees	97
Their work	97
Formation of volunteer militia companies	106

CHAPTER V

THE CONVENTION OF MARCH, 1775

Calling	110
Election of members	110
Some aspects of the Revolution in Virginia	110
Character of delegates to conventions	111
Lee family	111
Their training in vestry	112
In county courts	113
Education	114
Foresight	114
Need of good leaders	115

	PAGE
Did a minority lead the Revolution?	115
Contemporary opinion	115
The House the leader	116
People in sympathy	117
Number of loyalists	118
Loyalist centers	118
Scattered cases	120
Laws concerning loyalists	120
Reasons for unanimity of the people	121
Relations of the east and the west	122
Independence idea to March, 1775	124
Work of the Convention	128
Relation to the Continental movement	128
Military establishment	129
Henry's speech	130
Raising supplies	132
Courts	132
Arts and manufactures	133
Finances	135
Counties to choose delegates annually	136

CHAPTER VI

THE CONVENTION YEAR AND THE COMMITTEE OF SAFETY

A

The Conventions : July and December, 1775 ; May, 1776

Election of members	137
Ordinance concerning elections	137
Organization, rules, committees	138
Conventions the successor of the Assembly	138
Declaration of causes of meeting	139
The work of the conventions	140
Connection with general movement	140
Defence	142
Fundamental ordinance	142
Regulars	142
Minute-men	144
Militia	145
Later ordinances	145
Obtaining supplies	145
Arms	145
Powder	146
Ordnance	146
Salt	148

	PAGE
Degree of success	150
Naval preparations	150
Internal government	151
Committee of Safety	151
Election of members of conventions	151
Election of committee-men	151
Loyalists; the association	152
Minor legislation	152
Finances	153
Taxation and paper currency	153

B

The Committee of Safety

Purpose of its appointment	154
Members	154
First assigned duties	155
Later duties	155
The journal	156
Variety of its work	156
Selection from its journal	157

CHAPTER VII

THE CONSTITUTION OF 1776

Change of sentiment in regard to independence	158
Causes of the change	158
Feelings of the people	160
Views of Mason, Washington, Lee, Jefferson	160
Election of members of the convention	163
Resolution concerning independence	164
Grievances underlying this	164
Committee appointed	165
Declaration of rights	165
Authorship	166
Influence	166
Contents	166
Reasons for particular sections	167
Plan of government	169
Plans of Adams, Lee, Braxton, Smith, Jefferson, Mason	169
Its course in convention	171
Comparison of the plans, and contents of the constitution	171
Defects	174
Constitution of 1829-1830	176
Introduction of the constitution of 1776	176

CHAPTER VIII

THE REVISION OF THE LAWS AND THE STRUGGLE FOR RELIGIOUS FREEDOM*The Revision of the Laws*

Reestablishment of the courts	178
Abolition of entails	179
Committee of Revisors	181
Their meetings and methods	182
Death penalty, descents, education, slavery	183
Later history of the code	184
Later committees of revision	186
The act of Dec. 27, 1792	187
Revision of 1792	188
Death penalty and education	189

The Struggle for Religious Liberty

Position of the church in Virginia	190
The Commissary	191
The Calling of rectors	191
The Vestry	191
Laws regarding belief	192
Character of the clergy	193
The American episcopate	194
Attempts at reform	195
Rise of the dissenters	195
Early dissenters, Quakers, and others	195
Toleration gained, 1763	197
Clause regarding religion in Bill of Rights	198
Petitions regarding religion, 1776	198
Fundamental act of Dec. 9, 1776	200
Defects	201
Steps in the separation of church and state	202
Marriage laws	202
General assessment	203
Bill for incorporating religious societies	205
Vestry laws	206
Religious freedom bill	208
Repeal of incorporation measure	208
Repeal of all religious legislation	210
Sale of glebes	210
APPENDIX	213
BIBLIOGRAPHY	214