

CONTENTS

Introduction 1

PART I: MASS AGING IN PRISON: HOW DID WE GET HERE?

1. An Ounce of Prevention Is Worth a Pound of Cure 19
2. Intersecting Perspectives on Aging, Diversity, Difference, and Justice 41
3. Trauma and Diversity Among Older Adults in Prison 74
4. “I Try to Make the Best of It”: A Look Inside the Resilient Minds of Older Adults in Prison 98
5. Trauma, Mental Health, and Medical Concerns of Older Adults in the Prison System 121
6. How Do We Co-Construct Community? A Conceptual Map for Reuniting Older Adults in Prison with Their Families and Communities 138
7. “Coming Out” of Prison: LGBTQ+ Older Adults’ Experiences Navigating the Criminal Justice System 157

PART II: REALIZING A CARING JUSTICE WORLD

8. A Caring Justice Partnership Paradigm: Transforming the World from the Inside Out 171
9. Accepting the Gift of Life: Incarcerated Older Adults' Prescription for Living Longer, Happier, and Healthier Lives 191
10. Realizing a Caring Justice World: Promising Global Practices for Justice-Involved Older Adults 216

Afterword 233

Appendix 1 235

Appendix 2 237

Notes 241

Index 271

AGING BEHIND
PRISON WALLS

