
Contents

Translator's Note vii

Introduction i

PART I

MYTHS AND REALITIES OF CAPITALISM IN RUSSIA

1. A Capitalist Perestroika: First Steps, 1992–1993 9
2. Obstacles to Capitalist Development in Russia 46
3. Privatization, Government Crisis, and Elections (1993) 86
4. The End of Market Romanticism 136
5. Russia's New Class 169

PART 2

THE ELECTIONS OF 1995–96 AND THEIR AFTERMATH

6. Duma Elections, December 1995 203
7. Gennady Zyuganov as Politician and Ideologist 227
8. The Inevitability of Change 264

Contents

PART 3

1998: A YEAR OF UPHEAVAL

9. "War on the Rails" 279
10. Financial Collapse and Another Change of Government 302

POSTSCRIPT

YELTSIN'S LAST YEAR

11. Why the Dismissal of Primakov? 343
12. The Dismissal of Stepashin 349
13. Who is Putin? 351
14. The Second Chechnya War 356
15. The December 1999 Elections 358
16. A Change Without a Coup or Revolution 360

Index 363