

Acknowledgments

It is not possible to mention here all those who have given assistance to the author in the preparation of this book. The author gratefully acknowledges special indebtedness to Professors Garrett Mattingly and Stebelton Nulle who have read the whole manuscript, to Professor Shepard Clough who has read parts of it, and who have all made many valuable suggestions; to Lura M. Quimby who has also made many helpful suggestions; to Professor Paul Evans, Professor Walter Dorn, and President Charles Cole for encouragement and aid at various stages in the undertaking; and to Professors Marjorie Gesner, Martha Layman, and John Reinoehl who have helped in the tedious task of manuscript revision and proofreading. The author has benefited much from the courtesy and assistance which he received at the Harvard University Libraries, the Library of Congress, the National War College Library, and, above all, at the Library of the United States Military Academy. Colonel Morton and his staff by their warm welcome and unfailing helpfulness make research at West Point a great pleasure. It is necessary to point out that the author is solely responsible for the conclusions and any errors in the text. Finally, Albert V. Quimby and Christopher S. Quimby helped in the preparation of the drawings for the figures.
