

THE SEXUAL POLITICS OF BLACK CHURCHES

“Josef Sorett and a team of scholars, practitioners, artists, and thinkers—blended at the intersections of their expertise—present readers with an invitation to explore and feel our way through important discussions of Blackness, sexuality, and church/spiritual politics. Written and presented as a communal practice of listening, learning, and ‘reasoning together,’ this book illuminates what matters today in Black religious discourse.”

—THELATHIA NIKKI YOUNG, AUTHOR OF BLACK QUEER ETHICS, FAMILY, AND PHILOSOPHICAL IMAGINATION

“I am a Same-Gender-Loving African American Woman, Pastor, Bishop, Teacher, Preacher, Mother, and evolving Pentecostal Justice Warrior! I find my whole self and my community deeply situated in The Sexual Politics of Black Churches, a collection of experiences and studies focused on the Black Church and Sexuality. It was a joy to be part of the conversations, and the finished product is filled with scholarship and liberation power!”

—REV. DR. YVETTE A. FLUNDER, PRESIDING BISHOP OF THE FELLOWSHIP OF AFFIRMING MINISTRIES

“The Sexual Politics of Black Churches is not only timely—even overdue—but especially rewarding intellectually, politically, and ethically. Advancing conversations on sexuality and Black Christianity, this work is essential reading for anyone interested in Black Christianity in general, in religion and sexuality, in studies of religion and race, and in accounts of theology and politics in the United States. A wonderful achievement.”

—ANTHONY PETRO, AUTHOR OF *AFTER THE WRATH OF GOD:
AIDS, SEXUALITY, AND AMERICAN RELIGION*

RELIGION, CULTURE, AND PUBLIC LIFE

Series Editor: Matthew Engelke

The Religion, Culture, and Public Life series is devoted to the study of religion in relation to social, cultural, and political dynamics, both contemporary and historical. It features work by scholars from a variety of disciplinary and methodological perspectives, including religious studies, anthropology, history, philosophy, political science, and sociology. The series is committed to deepening our critical understandings of the empirical and conceptual dimensions of religious thought and practice, as well as such related topics as secularism, pluralism, and political theology. The Religion, Culture, and Public Life series is sponsored by Columbia University's Institute for Religion, Culture, and Public Life.
