

Contents

Acknowledgments	ix
Introduction	xiii
1. A LIBERALISM OF CONSCIENCE	1
Elements of Theocracy	2
Theocratic Minorities in Liberal Democracies	9
Discord in the Public Realm	10
Four Prudential Problems of Theocracy	12
Four Moral Failures of Liberalism	15
The Charge of Liberalism: Meeting the Challenges of Theocracy	20
Conclusion	26
2. LIBERALISM AND THE LIBERTY OF CONSCIENCE	29
Elements of Reasons	30
The Theocrat's Assessment of Liberalism	30
What Reason Is There for Theocrats to Affirm Liberal Institutions?	32
The Theological Argument	40
Liberty of Conscience: Three Principles	45
Reason to Affirm Liberal Institutions	51
Five Objections Considered	61
Conclusion	69
3. HOW SHOULD LIBERAL DEMOCRACIES TREAT THEOCRATIC COMMUNITIES?	71
Legal Challenges of Theocratic Communities	72
Limitations of Antiestablishment Arguments	75
Deficiencies of Strict Equality	78
Failures of Religious Accommodation	81
The Implausibility of Full Accommodation	87
The Precedent of Semisovereignty	90
Basic Elements of a New Standard	94
Building and Protecting the New Standard	105
Five Objections Considered	110
Conclusion	119

viii CONTENTS

4. INSPIRING PUBLIC REASON: THE PROMISE OF LIBERALISM	121
Public Reason Reconsidered	121
Religious Extremism: Stopping the Turn to Violence	126
Approaches to Ambitious Theocrats: Reasons and Arguments	133
Engagement	135
Aiming to Influence Identity	140
Prospects for International Comity	145
Five Objections Considered	148
REVIEW AND CONCLUSION: THE ULTIMATE APPEAL OF LIBERALISM	157
Notes	165
Index	209