

DEMOCRATIC LAW IN CLASSICAL ATHENS

The Fordyce W. Mitchel Memorial Lecture Series, sponsored by the Department of History at the University of Missouri-Columbia, began in October 2000. Fordyce Mitchel was professor of Greek history at the University of Missouri-Columbia until his death in 1986. In addition to his work on fourth-century Greek history and epigraphy, including his much-cited Lykourgan Athens: 338–322, Semple Lectures 2 (Cincinnati: 1970), Mitchel helped elevate the ancient history program in the Department of History and build the extensive library resources in that field. The lecture series was made possible by a generous endowment from his widow, Mrs. Marguerite Mitchel. It provides for a biennial series of lectures on original aspects of Greek history and society, given by a scholar of high international standing. The lectures are then revised and are currently published by the University of Texas Press.
