

NOTE ON TRANSLITERATION

In my transliteration of Arabic into English, I have used a simplified version of the International Journal of Middle East Studies conventions. While I have not marked emphatic consonants or long vowels, I have indicated ‘ayns (‘) and hamzas (’). Transliterations of Egyptian dialect have been adjusted to reflect the colloquial pronunciation. Names have been transliterated following the same principles, with the exception of cases where an established English spelling already exists.
