ACKNOWLEDGMENTS

Special thanks are due to the following persons at The University of Texas at El Paso: to Presidents Joseph Smiley, Joseph M. Ray, and Dean Ray Small for their encouragement; to Professor John M. Sharp, Dario Prieto, René Cantú, and my wife, Carmen, for their assistance in translating the beautiful prose of Antonio Caso from Spanish into English; to my colleagues in the Department of Philosophy; to Chester Christian, director, and the other members of the Inter-American Institute for their support and inspiration; and to the Organized Research Committee for funds with which I pursued this study.
