

CONTENTS

Foreword xiii

TONY ALLAN, University of London

Acknowledgments xvii

1. Water, Geography, and Peace in the Middle East: An Introduction
HUSSEIN A. AMERY AND AARON T. WOLF I
2. Conflict, Coexistence, and Cooperation: A Study of Water Use in the Jordan Basin
PETER BEAUMONT, University of Wales 19
3. Forces of Change and the Conflict over Water in the Jordan
River Basin
STEVE LONERGAN, University of Victoria 45
4. “Hydrostrategic” Territory in the Jordan Basin: Water, War,
and Arab-Israeli Peace Negotiations
AARON T. WOLF, Oregon State University 63
5. A Popular Theory of Water Diversion from Lebanon: Toward Public Participation for Peace
HUSSEIN A. AMERY, Colorado School of Mines 121
6. The Water Dimension of Golan Heights Negotiations
FREDERIC C. HOF, Armitage Associates, L.C. 150
7. Water Security for the Jordan River States: Performance
Criteria and Uncertainty
PAUL A. KAY AND BRUCE MITCHELL,
University of Waterloo 168

VIII WATER IN THE MIDDLE EAST

8. A Cooperative Framework for Sharing Scarce Water Resources:
Israel, Jordan, and the Palestinian Authority
NURIT N. KLIOT, University of Haifa 191
 9. Political Controls of River Waters and Abstractions between Various States within the Middle East: Laws and Operations, with Special Reference to the Jordan Basin
GWYN ROWLEY, University of Sheffield 218
 10. The Spatial Attributes of Water Negotiation: The Need for a River
Ethnic and River Advocacy in the Middle East
JOHN KOLARS, University of Michigan (emeritus) 245
- Appendix 1. Jordan-Israel Peace Treaty, 26 October 1994,
Article 6: Water 263
- Appendix 2. The Israel-PLO Interim Agreement, 28 September 1995,
Annex III, Article 40: Water and Sewage 268
- Glossary 273
- Author Biographies 279
- Index 283