

Introduction: The Definition and Interpretation of Ancient Maya Dance, 1

Definitions of Dance, 2

History of Maya Dance Studies, 3

Aesthetics and Embodiment, 9

Sources and Methods, 13

1: The Textual Record of Dance, 15

Decipherment of Dance Texts, 16

The Contexts of T516 “Dance” Expressions, 18

Case Study 1: Dos Pilas, 20

Case Study 2: Yaxchilán, 28

Conclusions, 44

2: The Iconography of Dance, 45

Identifying Dance Iconography, 47

Case Study: The Bonampak Murals, 61

Conclusions, 81

3: Dance Poses and Gestures, 83

The Study of Body Positions in Maya Art, 84

Dance Poses, 86

Problematic Poses, 93

From Pose to Gesture: Reconstructing Dance

Movement from Figural Images, 103

Case Study: Narrative and Avian Dances, 106

Conclusions, 111

4: Dance on Classic Maya Ceramics, 113

by Matthew G.Looper, Dorie Reents-Budet, and Ronald L. Bishop

Case Study 1: Dances of the Maize God, 114

Case Study 2: The Ik'-Style Corpus of Pictorial

Cylinder Vessels, 132

Conclusions, 149

Contents

5: The Architectural Settings of Dance, 151

Case Study 1: Dance Platforms at Copán and the Yucatán, 156

Case Study 2: Temple and Palace Dances in Campeche, 173

Conclusions, 186

6: The Persistence of Maya Dance After European Contact, 189

Characteristics of Colonial and Modern Maya Dance, 191

Case Study: The Patzkar, 201

Conclusions, 221

Epilogue: Dance as an Image of Civilization, 223

Dance as an Image of Divinity, 224

Dance as an Image of Society, 226

Dance as an Image of the State, 228

Aesthetics as Image and Process, 230

Dance in Ancient Maya History, 231

Appendix: 1516 “Dance” Expressions Ordered by Date, 235

Notes, 241

Bibliography, 247

Index, 271