

Contents

Editors' Introduction	vii
Luis Leal
History and Myth in the Narrative of Carlos Fuentes	3
John S. Brushwood
Los días enmascarados and Cantar de ciegos : Reading the Stories and Reading the Books	18
Richard M. Reeve
The Making of La región más transparente : 1949–1974	34
Lanin A. Gyurko
La muerte de Artemio Cruz and Citizen Kane : A Comparative Analysis	64
Jaime Alazraki
Theme and System in Carlos Fuentes' Aura	95
Frank Dauster
The Wounded Vision: Aura , Zona sagrada , and Cumpleaños	106
Malva E. Filer
A Change of Skin and the Shaping of a Mexican Time	121
Roberto González Echevarría
Terra Nostra : Theory and Practice	132
Mary E. Davis
On Becoming Velázquez: Carlos Fuentes' The Hydra Head	146
Margaret Sayers Peden
Forking Paths, Infinite Novels, Ultimate Narrators	156
Gloria Durán
Dolls and Puppets as Wish-Fulfillment Symbols in Carlos Fuentes	173
Merlin H. Forster
Carlos Fuentes as Dramatist	184

vi Contents

Manuel Durán

Carlos Fuentes as an Art Critic 193

George Gordon Wing

Some Remarks on the Literary Criticism of Carlos Fuentes 200

Chronology 217

Notes on Contributors 219